Every year, a select group of high-achieving Penn students are chosen to study abroad in a foreign country for 7 weeks of the summer. With not a word of English able to be spoken, the trip appears to be scary, especially journeying with 30 other students from across Indiana in each city. Comfort zones are pushed, but with the help of host families, professors, and the kind European folk, it is definitely worth the adventure. Although school is five days a week, the excursions and activities make up for it. In the end, one leaves with proficiency in their language, a love for the culture, and a bond with a host family forever.

"I missed speaking English so badly which is one thing I never thought I would miss! Before I knew it I was dreaming in German and understanding and speaking with all the people around me."-Bailey Oppman

"Do not rely on French stereotypes to help you out. Rarely anybody wears berets, and the phrase 'Sacre bleu' isn't actually a real phrase in France. The more you know."- Alec Jacobs

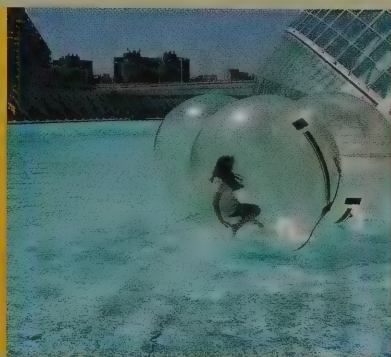

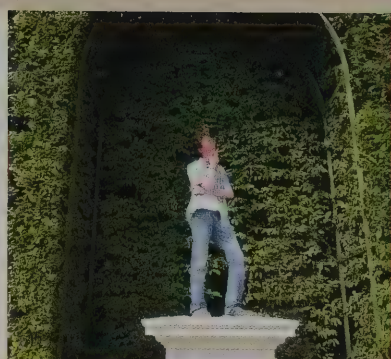

I left Ciudad Real with tears from my loving family, respect for the culture, and the dream to return. It was an incredible experience, one I will never forget. - Lindsey Daoust

"I remember standing in the shadow of the Arc de Triomphe as the sun set behind it, silhouetting Paris in a red cloud as the day began its transition to night and Paris came alive. If there was one word I could use to describe Paris, it would simply be magical."- Kevin Latimer

"Living on the other side of the world with very little communication with home definitely makes you more independent of a person. It was sink or swim."- Audrey Whitmire

Varsity Football

The varsity football team season was a huge success this year. They made it to the Semi-State Championships, losing to Carmel 28-13. "The ultimate goal is to always win the State Championship and not accomplishing that is tough," said head coach Cory Yeoman. The Kingsmen finished with a 12-1 record and ranked 8th in the state. Yeoman told the South Bend Tribune that "We had some chances. I'm just happy and proud that our guys kept fighting."

Zach Oakley scored early in the game against Fort Wayne Snider.

Tyler Carpenter, 11

Quarterback Zach Oakley was named MVP for the NIC. He was joined by nine other players on the first team. They were: Nate Miller, Thomas Cunningham, Inoke Moala, Tyler Carpenter, Clayton Stohler, Aaron Hancock, Tyler Sousley, Kyle Treber. Lauren McSorley, kicker, was first-team special teams.

Second team players included Ridge Tarwacki, Payne McCaskill, Kobe Woods, Chase Osborn and Tim Deal. Honorable mention players were Khalil Fleming, Riley Vandervoorde, and Ben Makowski.

THEY SAID IT:

* "You've always got to be wary of the pass, thinking pass, pass, pass," Tyler Sousley said. "You just have to do your job and your own piece of the pie."

* "It's awesome; it's a great feeling," Kyle Treber said. "There's nothing like it. We take pride in our special teams. . . We've really come together and have been working hard in practice. We're a tight bunch and we play hard. We're like a fist. We're one."

* Inoke Moala is an "unbelievable blocker," Coach Yeoman said. "He's dangerous when he gets his hands on the ball."

Pain only lasts a minute, Success lasts a lifetime.

Ridge Tarwacki, 12, lifted Zach Oakley after a touchdown against Mishawaka. "We played our butts off," said Tyler Sousley, 12.

Mark Winovich, 12, tackled the Caveman punt returner. Penn went on to win 28-7.

Khalil Fleming, 12, ran for yardage against Fort Wayne Snider. Penn dominated the number one Panthers. Fleming said, "It's about the team and not the individual. If we win as a team that means a lot more."

Freshman/ Junior Varsity Football

The Penn Kingsmen football players are an outstanding team, treating each other like family and coming together on plays. The freshmen were undefeated with their best score being 9-0. The season ended perfectly for both the junior varsity and freshman teams. Both teams worked hard, whether during the off the season or not, pushing themselves and encouraging their teammates. The teams improved themselves by working in the weight room and practicing over the summer, always pushing themselves to do better and to go harder. Their hard work and dedication contributed to the victories both team experienced. // "Our coaches were crazy fun," said Trace Manspeaker, 9. // Some of the highlights for the frosh football team was defeating St. Joseph 28-0 and Mishawaka 21-14. "This was a great season, and a great group of players. I would have to say that this group has potential to help the varsity program compete for state championships in the next three years," said Coach Keith O'Connell.

Varsity Cheer

The Varsity Cheerleading team supports the varsity football team every Friday night. The girls practice four days a week beginning in the early summer when they teach little kids cheerleading techniques at Kiddie Camp. After that, they provide food for the boys during their two-a-days and decorate their lockers with decorations and food every week. The girls are very dedicated to cheering and encouraging their team on to a victory. The girls worked very well together as a team and made many memories throughout the season.

The cheerleaders performed a pyramid stunt during a quarter break for the student section and parents.

Laikyne Ellsworth, Shayna Berg, Alyssa Quinlan, and Peyton Paul run with the flags after a Kingsman touchdown at Freed Field.

The entire squad quickly performed a stunt in between quarters for the student section and parents. The girls perform a stunt between every quarter for their fans.

The senior varsity cheerleaders performed chants for their fans to cheer along with. The student section always participates in cheers during the games.

A few of the seniors on varsity smiled for a picture during picture day. These girls have become extremely close throughout high school.

The varsity cheerleaders, with the assistance of the JV cheerleaders, performed a flip stunt. This stunt took a long time for the girls to master.

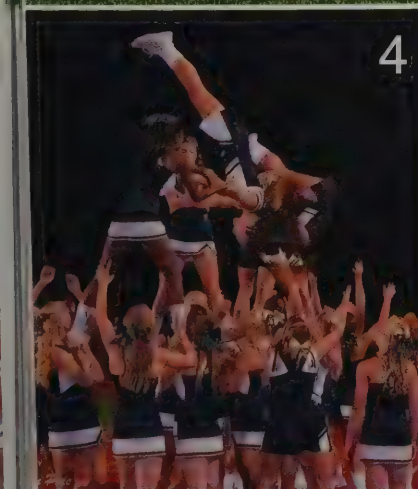

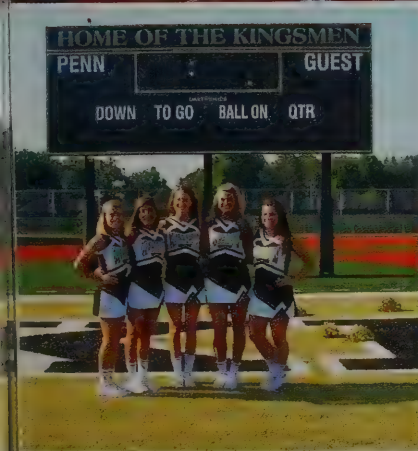

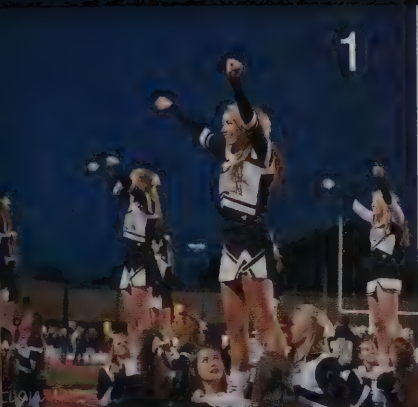

Senior cheerleaders smiled before honoring the flag during the National Anthem. Every game at their home field, the JV and varsity cheerleaders stand in a formation and do the school song and pledge for the National Anthem.

Freshman & Junior Varsity Cheer

Being a Penn football cheerleader can definitely give someone bragging rights. Every year, there are hundreds of girls that try out in hopes of becoming one of the few girls that not only get to cheer on their team, but are involved in the amazing football program, and also get front row seats to every game. The freshman and junior varsity teams work countless hours to prepare to support their team. Both cheerleading squads were lucky enough to be cheering on teams that were both undefeated. "We are lucky to have the opportunity to cheer for such an amazing school," said junior varsity cheerleader, Emily Gouker, 10.

Freshman Cheerleaders

"Cheerleading has brought us together as a family and I will remember these girls for the rest of my life," said Olivia Clem, 11.

The freshman cheerleaders take the time to arrange themselves in a ribbon to support the fight against breast cancer. "Although we may take it for granted sometimes, we are all thankful to be blessed with good health," said Chloe Klosinski.

Maddie Hendershot, 10, who is normally a back spot, changes things up a bit and flies in a stunt. A cheerleader should be able to fill in and be moved to any position. "What can I say? I was born to fly," she said.

"Cheerleading has definitely helped the transition from middle to high school. The first day of school I knew I would have sixteen best friends there to help me find my way around," said Kami Redman, 9.

The junior varsity cheerleaders showed off their specialized cookies at the Penn vs. Clay game. "Halftime is probably my favorite part of the game because we get to eat," said Kaley Manspeaker, 11, jokingly.

Color Guard

You'll soon forget the practices,
but you will always remember the performances

Hannah Heilman, 9

"What I love about color guard is all the new friends I've made. It's made my freshman year so much easier," said Heilman. She wishes to continue Color Guard in the future and looks forward to the many more experiences being in Guard has to offer.

Alyssa Abel, 11

Aly has been in Color Guard since freshmen year. She enjoys it because she has met her friends doing this activity. "All the hard work we put into Color Guard all eventually pays off when we perform," she said.

Sabrina Jakey, 9

Halftime is our time.

Helen Flynn, 11 and Tiffany Wagoner, 10

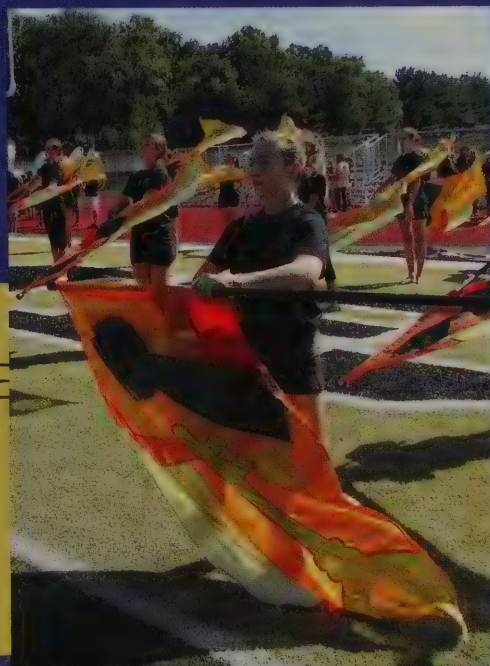

Hailey Stoddard and Emily Kramer, 11

Friends stood together all season at their favorite part in the performance. They spent many hours preparing for the performances. The best part was showing off the routine to everyone in the stands. It really showed that hard work pays off!

Allison Grabowski, 9

"Color Guard is definitely harder than it looks! It is always nerve-wracking to make sure you catch the flag when performing in front of people."

Taylor Davis-Redman, 12

Taylor enjoyed color guard because she got to spend time with her friends. Performing her hard work at the football games was her favorite part. She is very sad this was her last year doing color guard.

Catherine Hauck, 9

"Being in color guard is such a great high school experience. My coach and teammates have made high school so much more fun!"

Waving and flipping the flag is much more harder than it looks. It takes long practices to make sure that you are confident in catching the flag without looking up at it when performing.

Madeleine Tinkey and Maura Johnson, 10

"I loved the routine this year and thought that it was very creative with all the different movements we did," said MaddyTinkey. MauraJohnson said that she "had loved doing the new performance in front of everyone at the pep rally." Both of the girls enjoyed all the long hard days practicing together in the summer.

Her favorite part of doing this activity was making the new performances that were rarely showed during season. She thought it was so much fun to do something different.

MARCHING BAND

PENN MARCHING KINGSMAN

Drum Major Hannah Marker, 11, explained that Marching Band "is an activity where students have a chance to learn, compete, and make great music with people that have the same interests." She also said, "When you're in Marching Band, you learn that being early is a requirement, you never know how much water you needed, and that Thursday nights are not a time to be singing Kumbaya."

IT'S MORE THAN MELODY

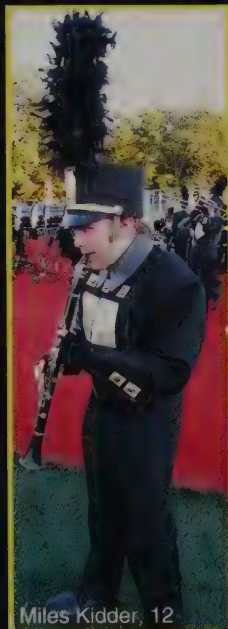

Marching Band is much more than the creation of beautiful music. The members who participate have to learn how to dance together and put on a show. The Marching Band members spend countless hours throughout the year, putting blood, sweat, and tears into their show.

CONNEXTION

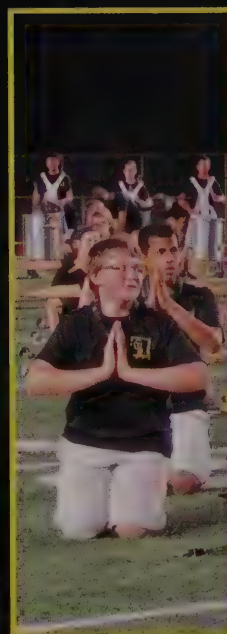

The show's concept for this year was called ConNEXTion. It was about the evolution of communication since the beginning of time--from ancient times and writing to traditional communication now. Now we have things such as wireless phones and various media sources that allows everyone to always stay connected.

The Kingsmen were very clever this year at involving their audience in the show. The audience was able to download an iPhone or Android app that allowed them to make music in the show. It was a great way to keep the audience on their toes.

Miles Kidder, 12

DRUM LINE

Watching the Penn Gold Rush play a great game of football is fun, but the best part of the night is after the game. There is NOTHING better than hearing the drum line battle in front of the student section!

Andrew Latham, 11, Nathan Arndt, 12, and Steven Leathers, 12 showed off their dance moves and drumming skills after a Friday night football game. Students agree that the drum line is so talented and always has so much energy.

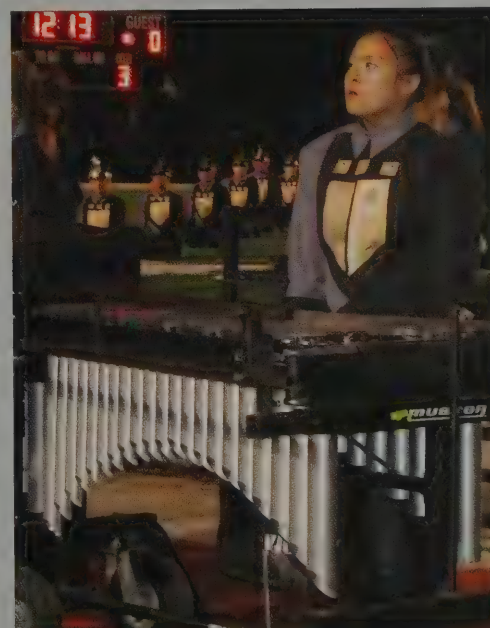

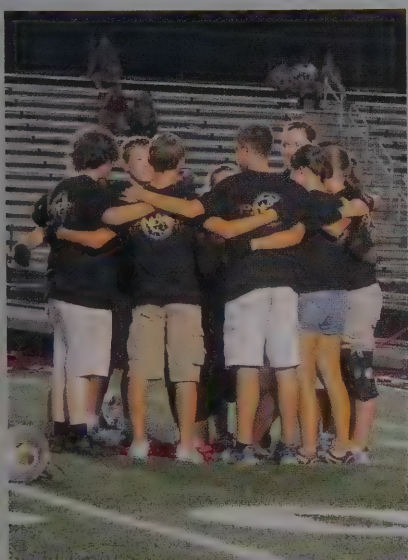

Paul Kwak, 11 is quick on the snare drum, never missing a beat.

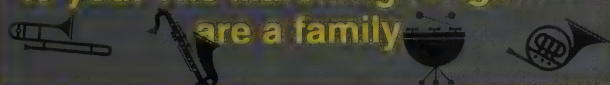

Chad Sisum, 11, led the way during the pep rally. Sisum played the bass drum even though it is almost bigger than he is.

KICKING BACK

Varsity Soccer

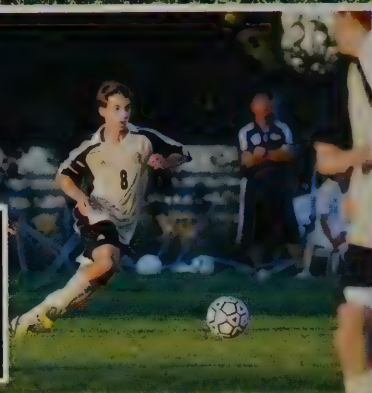

The Pride you Gain is Worth the Pain

Eleven players, two goals, and one ball. It is played by over 250 million people and exists in many countries. Soccer has grown to be the most popular sport in the world. Most players start at a young age and develop a love for the sport. It is almost impossible to master every skill in soccer. Players are always required to stay on their toes and be alert during the game. A key component of winning is team work. A soccer team has to work together if they want to be successful, which the Penn Kingsmen were able to do during their 2013 fall season. The Kingsmen had a strong regular season finishing with 9 wins, 4 ties, and 4 losses. Despite their losses, the team stayed determined and united as one to finish the season off as sectional champions. They were diligent and determined which allowed them to improve every game. As the practices continued the team showed improvement on skills as well as teamwork. Although their record didn't show their true abilities on and off of the field, they were a well-bonded team that came out aggressive and strong against each opponent. Some teams they played in the area included Elkhart Central, Adams, Marian, Clay, Washington, Riley, Mishawaka, and the most memorable game against Saint Joseph. The team was led by seniors Patrick Ducoffe, Aaron Weaver, Jeffrey Gifford, Edson Zamora, and Drew Heffelfinger. The Kingsmen had a great season.

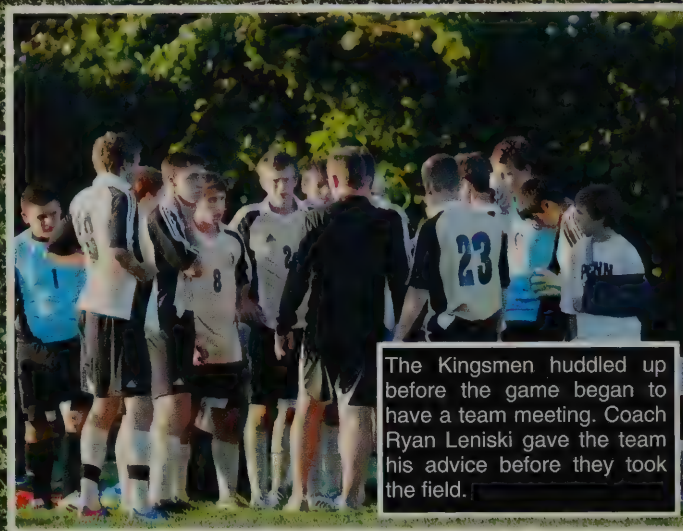

Drew Heffelfinger, 12

Drew Heffelfinger, 12, slid past a Riley player and got control of the ball. This is his first season playing outside back. He has played soccer all four years at Penn.

Hudson Huth, 11

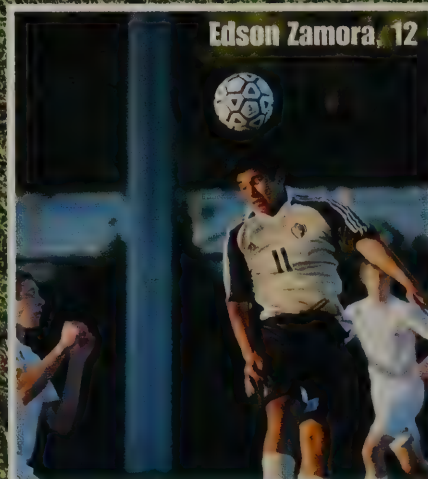

The Kingsmen huddled up before the game began to have a team meeting. Coach Ryan Leniski gave the team his advice before they took the field.

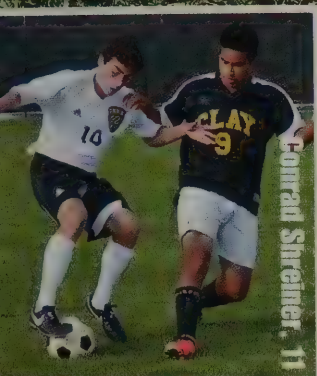

The team walked on the field with passion and determination. Before every game, the team gathered for a meeting and shared their thoughts before the game began. The team agreed that this is a tradition they want to keep alive.

Edson Zamora, 12, blasted a header to his teammate. Zamora was a hard-working player and always had his head in the game. "To me, soccer is so much more than a ball and two goals," he said. "It connects people from all corners of the world."

Edson Zamora, 12

Aaron Weaver, 12, dribbled the ball down the field towards the Riley Wildcats territory. He maintained possession of the ball while he looked for the opportunity to pass it to another teammate downfield or to score a goal. The Kingsmen defeated the Wildcats 4-0. Weaver's focus and composure helped keep the opponents from scoring throughout the season. Weaver's past 12 years of playing soccer paid off during his senior year.

A group of players celebrated their sectional win. The Kingsmen pushed hard and deserved the title of Sectional Champions. Conrad Shreiner, 11, was a central midfielder for the Kingsmen. Shreiner stated, "My favorite part of soccer is having a huge upset. Being the underdog and stunning everyone by beating them gets me so pumped up that people think I've been lifting more weights than Griffin Hoffman."

2013 Sectional Champions

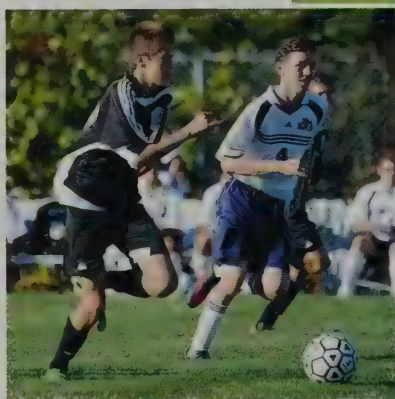

"Kickin' and Screamin'!"

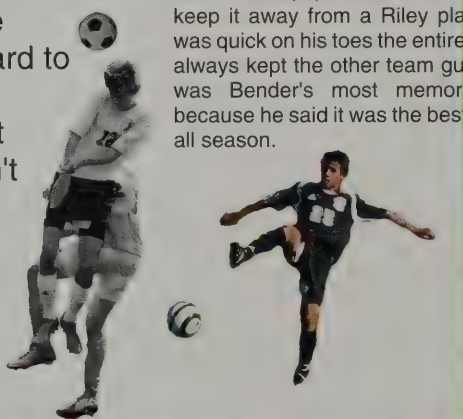

JV/Fresh Soccer

THERE IS NO "I" IN TEAM! Motivation and teamwork was key for the 2013 boys JV soccer team. With 9 wins and 2 losses the Kingsmen proved that they were, in fact, tough competition. The boys ended up having a great season and a memorable year. "We are more than just a team, we are brothers," said many of the players. The team really grew together this season and made some incredible memories. Many of the boys said their favorite part about soccer was just playing the game and the players they got to play soccer with. The boys are looking forward to playing together next year and can't wait for what the future holds for them.

Jack Bender, 9, raced for the ball in order to keep it away from a Riley player. Bender was quick on his toes the entire season and always kept the other team guessing. This was Bender's most memorable game, because he said it was the best he'd played all season.

Nicholas Prater, 10

Luyando Makala, 9

FIVE KEY Players

Nicholas Karamitsos #9

Karamitsos, 10, was a forward for the Penn JV team, and was a smart player in the starting lineup. He was fast up and down the field and never gave up on his team. Nick also contributed many goals for the Kingsmen.

Evan Shreiner #5

Shreiner, 9, played defense for the Kingsmen and always managed to slow the opposing teams down. He did a great job of keeping the ball away from the Kingsmen's goal and was voted a key player for the 2013 season.

Giovanni Ponce De Leon #GK

Giovanni, 10, was a goal keeper for the Kingsmen. He was always quick to react and kept the ball out of his goal. Giovanni could stop a ball like no other and never slowed down. He's definitely a key player for the Kingsmen.

Cameron Marsh #2

Marsh, 9, was a starting midfielder for the Kingsmen this year. Cameron always seemed to pass the ball at the right time and assist his team with many goals. He was nominated by his teammates as a key player for the 2013 season and we look forward to seeing him play next year.

Florian Spiessl #25

Midfielder Florian Spiessl, 12, was a great asset to the team this year. He has played soccer for a total of 8 years and will continue to play for the love of the game. Florian was a foreign exchange student who graduated with the 2014 class and will then headed back home to Germany.

When you want to SUCCCEED as bad as you want to

The Penn girls' varsity soccer team (PGS) came together as one family to have an amazing 2013 season. The girls played as one team and shared a bond with one another that led to extremely high achievements. The fall season was packed with determination and spirit, driving the girls and the coaching staff to success. Under the second year of head coach Jeff Hart, the Lady Kingsmen started the season with summer training in June and ended with a run at the semi-state title in November. All the hard work that the girls put forth paid off with an overall record of 7-1-0 in the NIC conference. PGS finished the post season with the Sectional and Regional championships. Although the team was defeated by Fishers in the first round of semistate, the girls never forgot the effort and teamwork that got them there. The talent of the Lady Kingsmen shined when the NIC Conference Awards came out: Roosa Lampinen and Kamra Solomon were named First Team, Claire Brooks, Jensen Stroinski, Ashley Waite, and Mikaylah Woods were named Second Team, followed by Kari Bellville and Mackenzie Mason being Honorable Mention. These recognitions were just some of the amazing achievements the girls accomplished this year. This year's group of girls truly left their mark on the Penn soccer program, both on and off the field. Not only was it an outstanding season for the fans to watch, but also the girls set a precedent for Penn soccer in the future.

Motivational Quotes From the Season

"Never give up, never give in, and when the upper hand is ours, may we have the ability to handle the win."

"Champions believe in themselves, even when no one else does."

"There may be a team out there that is more talented, but there's no one that works harder or has more passion than we do!"

BREATHE... THEN you will be SUCCESSFUL."

Northridge	2-1 (4-2 PK)
Fishers	0-1

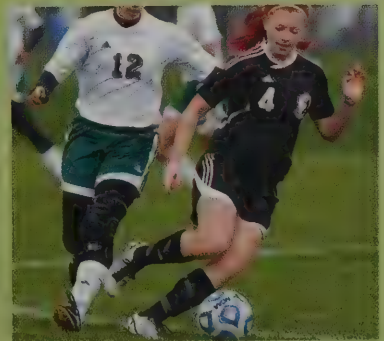

The post season started at Jackson Field as Penn took on Riley. Kamra Solomon helped earn the team a final score of 9-2 to advance Penn into the Sectional Finals. Solomon stated, "The best part of the season was being around some of my best friends every day. The success that came along with it was a bonus. We were really close and there was never a moment we weren't laughing."

Seniors

The first goal in the first regional game against rival St. Joseph was scored in the minute. Ecstatic after Finnish exchange student, Roosa Lampinen's, goal, teammate Jensen Stroinski picked her up as they celebrated the 1-0 advance. Lampinen stated, "It was great to be able to help my team take the lead early."

After the hard fought win over St. Joseph in the first regional game, Penn faced Northridge for the regional final. Penn's Mikaylah Woods, 10, featured below, stated about the season, "My favorite part was making it to semi-state after winning in PKs in the regional championship."

Junior Varsity Soccer

Starting off from the summer, the whole soccer program trained their hardest to be well prepared for the season. With 15 incoming freshman there was stiff competition to work their hardest and show off their skill. The team was coached for the second year by Will Baker and new assistant coach Chad Hershberger. Baker stated about the season, "This JV team may be one of the toughest teams this school has seen. Their undefeated play was capped off with a patient and persistent win over a solid St. Joe team I couldn't be more proud of them." The team was led by two junior captains, Sarah Tidey and Melina Yeoman. Overall, they ended up with an impressive record of 14-1, with their only loss to Carmel. With this great season it is evident that many of these players have improved and will make great additions to the varsity team in years to come.

"Penn Soccer is always one of my favorite parts of the year and I can't wait for what next season brings."

-Alessandra Castaneda

"The best part of Penn Girls' Soccer is just being a part of the team. They are the only girls who I can count on to push myself to do what I never thought I was capable of."

-Shannon Domal

"PGS made my worries about being new to Penn disappear. I can't believe how nice the girls were. Playing with them was amazing!"

-Haley Erhardt

"I love PGS and the bonds of friendship and teamwork we have on our team. I'm excited about my next three years of PGS and I'm also looking forward to a state title."

-Savannah Day

"After all the hard work during summer conditioning and throughout the season it was great to have a successful season and to be a part of the sectional team."

-Nicole Knudtson

"My favorite part of PGS was how close we all were as a team. I made friendships that I know will last me forever."

-Rachel Marshall

Team Bonding

PGS is often described as a family. To get this dynamic, each year the senior class hosts team bonding for each grade whether the players are on JV or Varsity. There is a freshman breakfast, sophomore pool party, and a junior bonfire. This is tradition for every year in the program and is a great way for everyone to become closer at the start of the season.

"Tennis is mostly mental. Of course, you must have a lot of physical skill, but you can't play tennis well and not be a good thinker. You win or lose the match before you even go out there." ~Venus Williams

Varsity Tennis

The 2013 boys' tennis team was a standout team, placing one of the best in Penn's history. Not only were the boys NIC champs, but they earned sectional, regional, and semi-state titles this tennis season. The team attended team state on Friday, October 18, and did all they could to advance themselves on to the next day of play on Saturday. Their efforts came up a little short when they lost 2-3 to Evansville Memorial. Stuart Feeley, 9 (3 singles), and Jacob Macri, 11 (2 singles), were able to come away with wins against Evansville Memorial. The two boys really stepped up their game at state! The team worked very hard this season and achieved their goal of going to team state. This year's All-State team included Penn's double partners Sean Anderson, 12, and Aidan Koch, 12, and singles player Michael Wang, 11. Aidan Koch, 12, also was a Kiwanis student athlete for the month of September. This year's group of seniors will be greatly missed and the juniors are ready to step into the leadership roles next year.

Coach Eric Bowers gathered the team together for a quick talk as they prepared to take on their opponents.

"I Want you to drink their blood!"

"HOLA!!" "That was bootyful!"

"You have to run for saying HOLA!"

"Friday Fun Run!"

The seniors with Coach Bowers on Senior Night. "This was my first group of seniors that I have coached for all four years. They will always have a special place in my heart," Bowers mentioned.

COACH'S CORNER

Eric Bowers

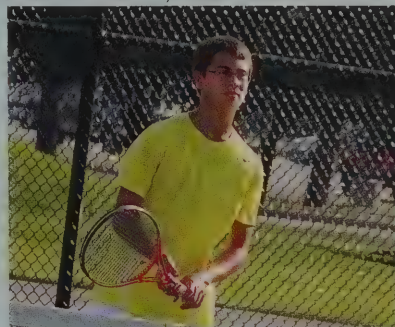

This year's tennis team had two returning players to the varsity team; because of this, many people thought that this was the year to beat Penn. It was great to see the team prove everyone wrong. They definitely exceeded my expectations on the year. One of my favorite things about this year's team was that they bonded like no other, they were always rooting each other on, and pulling for one another. Seeing that relationship form between my team was great to see; it made the season that much more enjoyable.

Brendan Butler, 11, was a returning letter winner and played #2 doubles with his partner Mason Lee, 9. Lee was one of two freshman, the other being Stuart Feeley, 9, that are on the varsity team. "Playing with Mason this year has been great. Once October came he really stepped up his game and we started to play as a team. The first year on varsity is always an adjustment and we were able to make it a smooth transition," Butler stated.

Mason Lee, 9

Michael Wang, 11, has been on varsity for three years. This was his second year winning the NIC Player of the Year, which is a rare and impressive accomplishment. He's a true competitor out on the tennis court and everyone knows it. Wang said, "My favorite part about playing tennis is the atmosphere."

Sean Anderson, 12, and Aidan Koch, 12, are Penn's #1 Doubles partners. The boys are not only close on the court but are great friends off the court. "Being able to play with someone with as much experience as Sean, has given me the confidence I needed in order to play my best, and for us to succeed throughout the season," Koch expressed.

Sean Anderson, 12

Sean Anderson, 12, was the only member of the tennis team that has been on varsity all four years. Sean has also had three state appearances in doubles, with an impressive 4th place finish his freshman year. When asked what Penn tennis has meant to him, Anderson responded, "It has been a true privilege. I always made sure I gave my personal best effort because it not only affected my partner and I, but the team as a whole." Anderson ended his high school tennis career with an overall 93-7 record. Talk about a team leader!

See it, Believe it, Achieve it!

This year, the Penn Girls' Golf team had one of their most impressive and record breaking seasons to have ever happened in the history of Penn Athletics. In the pre-season polls Penn was ranked No. 4, but the girls quickly moved their way up to No. 1 after dominating the first three summer tournaments. The girls had an undefeated conference season, while also winning 11 straight invitational titles. The team captured both the 2013 Sectional and Regional titles in the post season play. They ended their year playing down in Franklin, Indiana, at The Legends Golf Course competing in the Indiana State Finals. The girls earned the Runner-Up title, finishing 27 shots behind the Carmel Greyhounds after a rainy October weekend. Even though the girls did not finish the end of the season the way they wanted to (not winning the State Title), the girls had many other accomplishments! The girls broke two team records, including: 11 straight summer invitational titles, Regional Record (297), while senior Kari Bellville broke the 9-Hole record (32: 4 under par) and tied the 18-Hole record twice (67: 5 under par).

Madison Chesnutt, 12

The Penn girls pose with Superintendent Dr. Jerry Thacker and Athletic Director Aaron Leniski after the second round of the 2013 STATE Finals. The girls finished in second place, rounding off the year with the record of 26-1.

Kari Bellville, 12

Coach Jim Garrett gave the team advice as they prepared to compete in one of their dual NIC matches. Coach Garrett repeatedly stated, "It doesn't matter who we play, what matters is that you do your personal best." The girls always took Coach Garrett's advice to heart every stroke they took.

Favorite Quotes From The 2013 Season

"Hardwork doesn't guarantee results, lack of hard work does guarantee failure." - Coach Garrett

"Never play your competitor, play the golf course." - Kari Bellville

"The only thing you can do to get better is practice harder." - Cassidy Jurkaites

FIVE KEY RETURNEES

Kari Bellville - 12 Bellville plays national tournaments throughout the summer, traveling from coast to coast. Her expertise and level of play have boosted Kingsmen golf into a top ranked team.

Katie Willenbrink - 12 Willenbrink has been a key component in the Kingsmen line-up. Her consistency in play gives the team reassurance of having a solid score in her #2 position.

Emily Song - 12 Song is known for her patience and being able to stay focused on the golf course. Her accurate ball striking and growth from season to season really shined in the 2013 season.

Madison Chesnutt - 12 Chesnutt is a returning four year varsity player. The time and effort she put in during the off season is reflected in the scores she put up, making her a contender in the line-up.

Audrey Henderson - 12 Henderson rounded up the top five players. When it came to her short game, she was able to execute her putts. Unfortunately, Henderson was unable to finish the season due to an injury.

COACH'S CORNER

When one looks at Jim Garrett's career as a golf coach, the word "remarkable" is an understatement.

Garrett first started coaching sports in 1971, making this 2013 golf season his 43rd and final year as being a head coach. His dedication and commitment to every athletic program he has been involved with has motivated teams to be successful, confident, and ready for the future. Garrett earned national recognition in 2006 when he was named National Coach of the Year. He has been a part of the Penn Girls' Golf program for the last 18 years. During his time as the head golf coach, he has earned 13 NIC Champions, 15 undefeated season dual matches, 2 State-Champion titles, 2 Runner-Up titles, and recognition for placing in the top 4 at the state finals 9 years in a row. Garrett stated,

Boys' Cross Country

RUN THE DISTANCE!

The Penn boys' cross country team had a very successful year. They started out their season strong. At the first meet of the season at the Niles Viking Stampede, Thomas Gales, 12, and Taylor Neff, 12, both ran under seventeen minutes. This was Taylor Neff's fastest time so far. Tyler Krathwohl, 12, and Jack Mader, 11, also stood out this season.

They ran their personal best times at the last meet of the season. Jack Mader broke seventeen minutes at both Regionals and semi-state. The team finished their season runner-ups at the Elkhart Regional Championships and came in ninth place at semi-state.

The team huddled up before the NIC championship at Elkhart.

Regional Runner-Ups

"The real purpose of running isn't to win a race, it is to test the limits of the human heart." -Anonymous

Jack Mader, 11

What is the best thing about Penn Cross Country?

"The camaraderie the runners feel after a race and after the lactic acid and oxygen debt that the runners feel."

Clay Landis, 10

What was your favorite moment of the season?

"My favorite moment of the season was when the boys' JV team won the JV NIC conference meet."

Reis Kennedy, 9

What do you like about running?

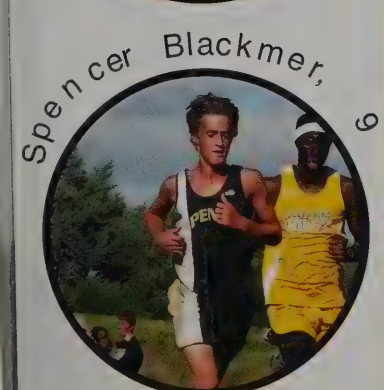

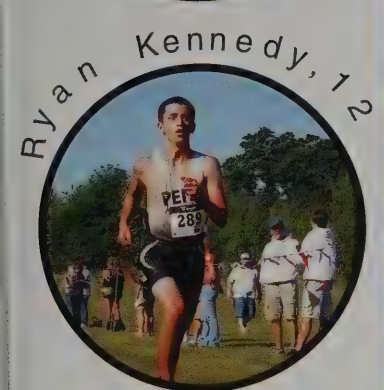

"The best thing about running on cross country is my team. All of the people are fun and I've made a lot of friends."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SEASON

- ★ The team was runner-up at Regionals.
- ★ Reis Kennedy was the only freshman to run in the NIC Championship as well as the Sectional, Regional, and Semi-state Championships.
- ★ Jack Mader, 11, Thomas Gales, 12, and Tyler Krathwohl, 12, all broke seventeen minutes this season.

new team members will make to the team success, and it is always exciting to see how much effort and sacrifice the returning runners will make for the team." The other coaches who contributed to the team included Coach Opperman, Coach Faltynski, Coach Clements, and Coach Anderson.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

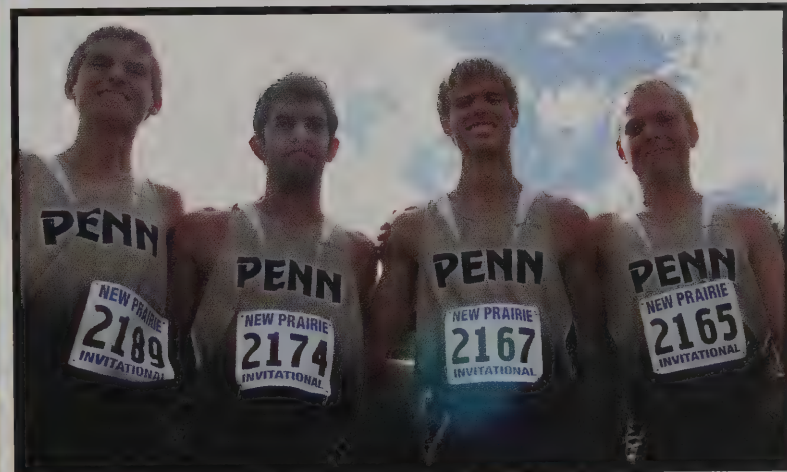

This year there were 14 seniors: Joey Bartus, Cameron Castleman, Collin Elek, Thomas Gales, Colin Kennedy, Ryan Kennedy, Luke Knaggs, Jon Koellner, Tyler Krathwohl, Tim Liu, Taylor Neff, Cole Shearer, Zach Stabrowski, and Tom Varner. Thomas Gales, who participated in cross country all four years of high school, said, "I've been running for four years and it was the best decision of my life. The friends that I made I will never forget and they made me who I am today." Senior Thomas Gales was the team's number one runner throughout the season and senior Taylor Neff earned our most improved award. Finally, Senior Tyler Krathwohl ran his personal best time ever in the last meet of the season.

The runners start their race at the New Prairie Invitational.

Girls' Cross Country

The Penn High School Girls Cross Country team, led by Coach Tom Miller, ended the running season on a great note. Coach Miller said that what he most enjoyed about this season was that "the girls worked together, supported each other, and challenged each other, regardless of whether they were younger runners or older runners. All of these things together have made us a better team." With only one NIC Triangular meet each season this year the team was mostly made up of freshmen and very few upperclassmen. Coach Miller's team of girls are said to be a very close tight knit group of girls. The girls also made it to regionals on October 20. Frontrunner Maddie Woods, 11, running again after a few weeks, won the individual title in just 18 minutes and 2 seconds. The South Bend Tribune stated that "The Kingsmen have been strong and up front all season but many observers feel they need to develop depth in the back of their pack to be a potential IHSAA medal winner."

Runner Maddie Woods, 11, was an extremely triumphant runner. Woods missed a few meets due to an injury, but the team was in capable hands. "We've all been stepping up," said Danielle Frank, 10, "but I'm looking forward to having Maddie back and having someone to push our pack."

It's not about how fast you run, but it is about how long you can run that!

★ Junior Maddie Woods earned a sixth place individual finish at the Wabash Valley Sports Center in Terre Haute.

★ "Our kids came to race," said coach Tom Miller in the South Bend Tribune, who winced along with his runners when the sixth-place finish was announced. "They competed. We had a couple PR's and this wasn't the best day to run. We put it out there; we just finished a little short."

★ Penn received sixth place in the IHSAA girls state cross country finals.

Runners took a break to get ready to make their run. With their very intense practices the runners are more than ready to make their marks.

Runners, take your marks! The cross country course is a 5k race (3.1 miles), and covers flat and hilly ground.

"It stinks that this is my last year here with all of these girls. We have become so close this year, and have had so much fun this year," said Lauren Pottschmidt, 12. "Everyone is nervous before our races, but its more like excitement," Pottschmidt stated after receiving 4th place at regionals.

"The most memorable thing from cross country would have to be making new friends from all over the school. Over the season we had many parties and countless meets," said Lili Dutka, 9.

"Meeting new people to make memories that last a lifetime is the reason I wanted to do a sport in the first place," stated Sydney Kenjockety, 9. "I love running on a team and meeting new people and watching us grow throughout the season. Also growing as a team!" Kenjockety stated in her interview.

Passion, Performance, Pride, Penn Volleyball

The varsity volleyball team finished their season 28-9 as sectional champions. Many of the girls made 1st and 2nd NIC teams, and All-Star teams. The volleyball team wasn't just a team for these girls, they were a family. Alayna Wozniak, 12, said "What made this season so amazing wouldn't have anything to do with how we finished, but has everything to do with the team I finished with. This was by far one of my favorite teams I've played with and I couldn't have asked for a better group of girls." On and off the court they spent countless hours together. Many unforgettable memories were made throughout the season. The Penn volleyball program has been very successful, because of the great coaching staff. Overall throughout the season many accomplishments were made and lots of improvement were seen throughout the players, because of the many hours that were put in during summer workouts and in the off-season.

Season Highlights

- * The 5th game of the season Penn played Elkhart Central at Central. The Kingsman knew it would be a tough match but fought through to the end with a 3-2 win.
- * Penn came out of the Lafayette Jeff tournament undefeated, beating Clinton Prairie, Homestead, and Central Catholic in pool play. Penn went into the championship game with fire and came out on top with the trophy.
- * The Kingsman had a 3-0 victory against both Riley and Washington in the first and second round of sections in their home gym.
- * The team finished the season being sectional champs, with a 3-0 championship victory against Mishawaka.

Senior Returnees

Lexi Ball #1 Defensive specialist/Libero and 4th year varsity returnee, Lexi Ball was not only a key defensive player, but really shined when it came to service aces. She was tied for the most amount of aces with 49 throughout the season. Ball also made the All-State team, was academic All-State honorable mention, and received the spirit award.

Meg Gabbard #3 Libero, Meg Gabbard, led the team in digs with 291 and serve receptions with 468. Meg had the fire and intensity the Kingsmen needed in the backrow. She also showed she had many leadership skills, making her one of the captains this year. She will also continue her volleyball career from a Kingsman to a Flyer at Lewis University.

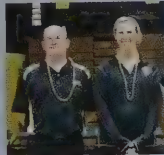

Alayna Wozniak #4 Setter, Alayna Wozniak, was a key player the Kingsmen needed in order to set up the offense and led the team with 957 assists. She also came in handy when it came to service aces, as she also tied with the most aces of 49. She was one of the captains showing leadership skills on and off the court. Wozniak also made the 1st team All-Conference, All-State team, and won the Penn Kingsman volleyball award.

Aly Schneider #12 Middle hitter, Aly Schneider, was not only a key hitter for the Kingsmen, but an outstanding blocker. Hitting into Aly was like hitting into a brick wall. She led the team with 105 blocks, and was also another captain demonstrating a lot of leadership skills. She will also continue to play at Lewis University. Schneider also made 1st team All-Conference, All-Star team, and received Academic All-State honorable mention.

COACH'S CORNER

Head Coach: Sarah Hendricks
 Assistant Coach: Dave Gingerich
 Assistant Coach: Jessie Kinney

This season was Coach Hendricks 3rd year coaching at Penn. Hendricks has won 99 matches since she started at Penn in 2011. So far in her journey with Penn volleyball she won a state championship her first year coaching. Last year she coached her team to the final four, and this year her team finished with the sectional title. Coach Hendricks always told her players that if you don't like me that means I'm doing my job. Coach Hendricks always pushed for success. She would push the girls to do their best and never accept anything less. She would tell her players that if something isn't working for them to just focus on something else and get that right. Hendricks knew that no matter what gym she and the team walked into, she believed they had a weight to carry on their shoulders: "We were Penn and everyone was out to beat us." No matter what, Coach Hendricks and the team will come back fighting again for that state title.

Freshman/JV Volleyball

Serving Up Victory

This year the girls highlighted their skills by digging deep, up the kills, the competition and up victory. Junior varsity had several games in the season; however, in the biggest game of the season the girls came out victorious. JV won their final tournament at Marian in October. "Winning the tournament was a perfect way to end the season. It really felt like all of our hard work payed off," Katelyn Crothers, 11, said. "I love my team we really proved ourselves this year," Abigail Zellers said. // Freshmen also had a great season, their way to many wins and making Penn proud. "I've created such tight bonds with these girls, they're my teammates and friends," Dakota Dempler, 9, said. This year the freshmen, as well as JV and varsity, got spirit shirts for their family and friends. The girls passed out "Digs Me" shirts to their supporters to wear at games and around school. A "Digs Me" shirt or not, there's no doubt Penn is proud of their JV and freshman team.

Freshman

- * Dakota Dempler: "My team is my family. I love these girls."
- * Sophie Self: "We worked hard this season, and I'm proud of my team and all we accomplished."
- * Samuel Polletier: "This year was fun! I'm ready to see what next year brings."
- * Madeline Nickles: "We had a great season, our whole team really stepped up and I'm proud of them."

Being a team is about being unified, and about working together to give it all you got and putting your heart into the game. This season it showed that the girls did just that and had a great season.

This year JV had a successful season. The girls used teamwork and skill to beat their opponents but also to magnify their Penn pride.

Fall Studio Theater & Competition Play

Patio/Porch - Fall Play

The fall play, directed by Dave Dutton, had a small cast. "Patio/Porch" featured Hersha Timble, 12, Laura Harmon, 12, Anna Carpenter, 11, and Alienna Worthen, 11. "Patio" is set in the backyard of a middle-class Texas home. Two women talk about their plans for their futures and their lives. "Porch" is also about two women that express their frustration through dialogue which is very funny at times. Both plays were very entertaining, although the characters were living lives of desperation.

Trifles - Competition

"Trifles," directed by Bill Heimann, was the competition play put on by Penn students Destinee Flowers, 12, Anna Ortega, 12, Michael Litteral, 12, Ian Riggs, 12, and Michael Williams, 12. Each character had their own unique part in the show. The theme of the play was that men do not appreciate women. The men in this production betray a sense of self-importance. The men act as detectives; however, they are not nearly as observant as the women. The two women formed a bond and went against the men.

Meet the Cast Members:

Destinee Flowers

Mrs. Wright,
Sheriff's Wife

Anna Ortega

Mrs. Hale,
Neighbor

Michael Litteral

George Henderson,
County Attorney

Ian Riggs

Henry Petersen,
Sheriff

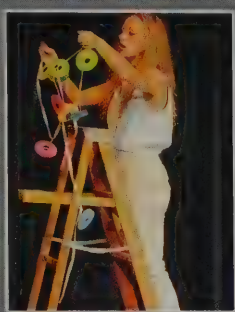

Michael Williams

Lewis Hale,
Neighboring Farmer

Competition

"It was a lot of fun preparing for the play. Rehearsals lasted a month and I loved working with a small cast. It took a great deal of work, but the rewards were even greater."

- Laura Harmon, 12

Directors

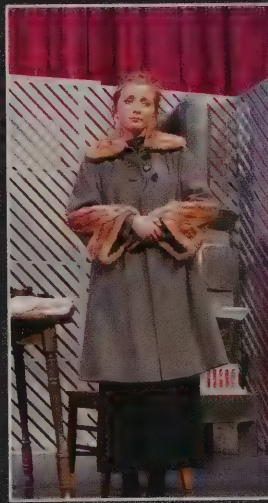

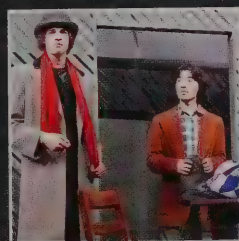

A director is the most important person in a production. They are responsible for organizing and bringing the show to life. Both Dave Dutton and Bill Heimann have directed many plays and musicals throughout their years at Penn.

Mr. Dutton

Mr. Heimann

These talented actors and actresses spent many evenings practicing for the performance. They became very close to each other and for the seniors it was a memorable way to remember their final year at Penn.

Gettin' Rowdy!

Powderpuff Football

In the first Powderpuff game the juniors beat the freshmen. Next, the seniors played and beat the sophomores in the second game. Then juniors beat the seniors in the last game. The juniors overall won. The games got intense on the football field. Looks like the girls can get just as rowdy as the boys!

Madison Bogart, 10, scored a touchdown for her team within the first three minutes of the game. She described the feeling as "pretty exiting."

Junior Alexis Dodge thought it was pretty exciting when her team beat the seniors. It is normally a big competition. She said she looks forward to playing Powderpuff again next year.

Although the seniors were upset with the juniors beating them that night, seniors agreed that it was an unforgettable experience.

The Hound of the Baskervilles

Keep Calm and Act On

The Hound of the Baskervilles is a comic thriller starring Shirley Holmes, Sherlock Holmes's niece, and Jennie Watson. Shirley Holmes is a really serious main character in the play who just wants to make her uncle proud. Jennie Watson is kind of head strong, doesn't-really-think-before-she-speaks, and a little bit naive main character.

Jasmine Stahl, 11, an ensemble cast member, said what she likes about acting, is "I like expressing myself through a different person from my perspective." Cast member Mary Grace Ahearn, 11, said that "You get to be a different person and you kind of get to escape from the real world for just a little bit."

This play is in the time frame of 1889, October. The play takes place in London, England and the Murky Moor of Devonshire.

Lauren McCarthy, 11

inspiration

What inspired you to act?

"It started with something I was good at. It just developed to when I was looking at everyone else and I saw all the benefits it was bringing to me."

Michael Litteral, 12

"My Uncle. He's a professional opera singer and he does a lot of acting and singing."

Jasmine Stahl, 11

Liz plays a stick in the mud and protective character, Dr. Maxine Mortimer. She related to her character by how they both worry about other people. Liz has been acting ever since fourth grade. She also got into South Bend Civic Theatre and community stuff. She is inspired by the characters in shows that she used go and see when she was little.

66 Fall CPA Play Liz Carrier, 9

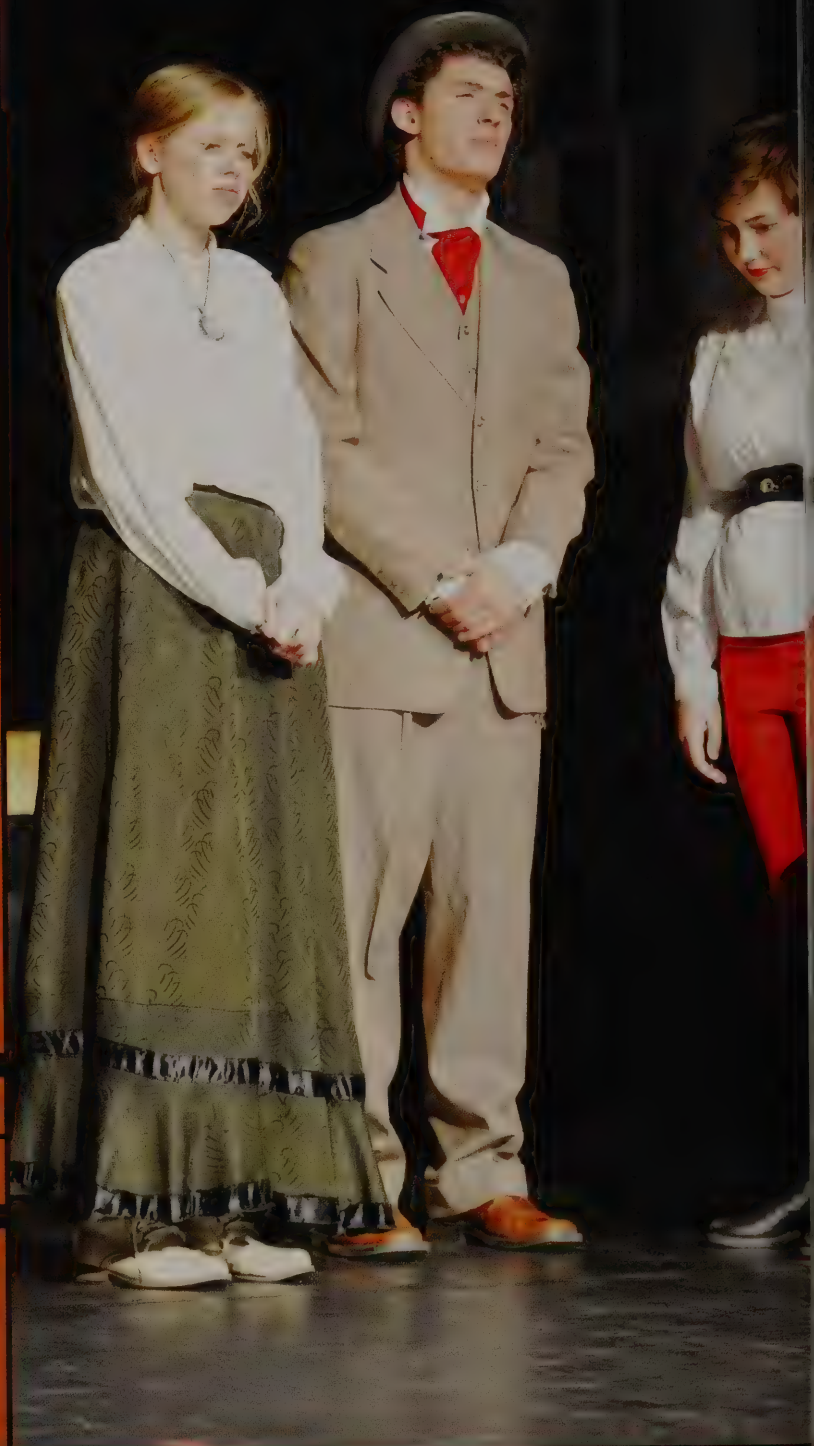

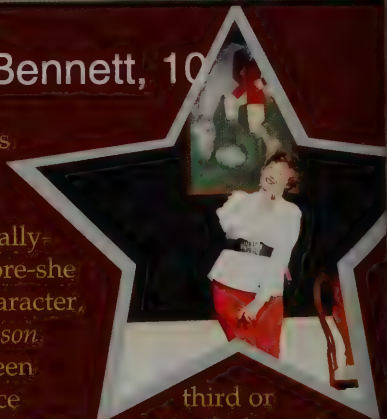

Michael plays two different characters; stereotypical Hugo Baskerville and psychopathic Selden. He has been acting ever since the end of his sophomore year. He has joined other plays like The Jungle Book. He related to his characters by their openness. Michael is going to college at Ball State University.

Michael Litteral, 12

Billie Bennett, 10

Billie plays a head-strong, doesn't-really-think-before-she-speaks character, Jennie Watson. She has been acting since third or fourth grade. She loves the feeling of people cheering her on. She is inspired by all the support she gets from her friends.

Story Time

"This production is more of a spoof of the novel The Hound of the Baskervilles. It takes the complicated plot of the original novel and turns all of the action upside down to emphasize the silliness of the complicated plot. In the context of the original novel, the supernatural aspects combined with the unlikely incidents work to build suspense and offer surprising twists to the plot. As the play condenses a mammoth book into about 90 minutes of entertainment, those shocking suspenseful turns of plot start to look pretty silly. The actor's playing two corpses do not stay dead--they complain about being kicked and dragged around. The mention of "Five Million Bucks" triggers the cast to jump on stage and speak in unison. One of the flips of the plot is to reverse the gender of the characters. The famous Sherlock becomes his niece Shirley. Dr John Watson is transmuted into his niece the medical school student Jennie Watson. The cast and crew performed beautifully." William Heimann, Director

Ian Riggs, 12

Ian plays a zany, semi-serious character Sir Charles Baskerville. He has been acting for 5 years. He relates to his character by understanding what's going on and goofing off. He will attend Central Michigan University

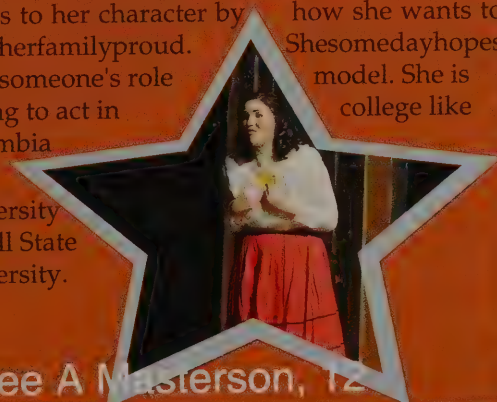

Main Characters: Their Stories

Kalee played a serious main character, Shirley Holmes, Sherlock Holmes's niece. Kalee has been acting ever since she was four years old. Kalee relates to her character by how she wants to make her family proud. She someday hopes to be someone's role model. She is hoping to act in college like Columbia University or Ball State University.

Kalee A Masterson, 12

Mitchell plays a flirtatious coward character, Sir Henry Baskerville. He has been acting since sophomore year. His inspiration to act is Dave Dutton. He had and he told Mitchell acting. He gave and he ended up Mr. Dutton for debate that he should try acting a chance liking it.

Mitchell Popovic, 11

Fall PA Play 67

I'm a big makeup girl. A lot of eyeshadow, I love to experiment. Smokey eyes, anything I can make look good! Dramatic eye and nude lip color if anything.
- Brooklyn Morris, 12

The dream item I wish I had is the Berkin bag by Hermès.
- Nicole Lewis, 9

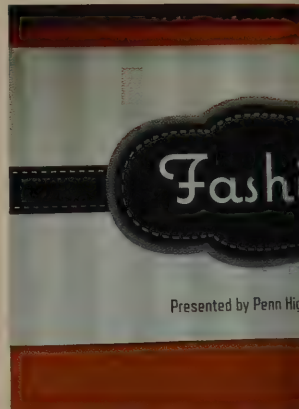

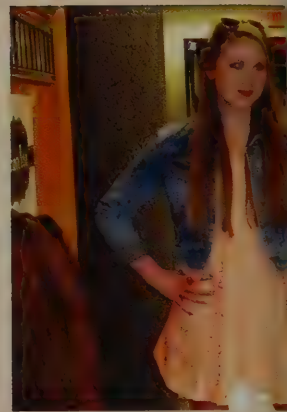

Fashion

Penn High School presents Four Seasons of Fashion.

Show

Penn's black day third block fashion merchandising class was given the task to conduct a fashion show for the 8th grade open house. The models were selected at an audition after school. Most were nervous because it was their first time but they acted like professionals the night of the show. The show was a major success and gave an opportunity for the fashion merchandising class that they never had before.

My favorite makeup brand is Nars.
- Amanda Lerzel, 11

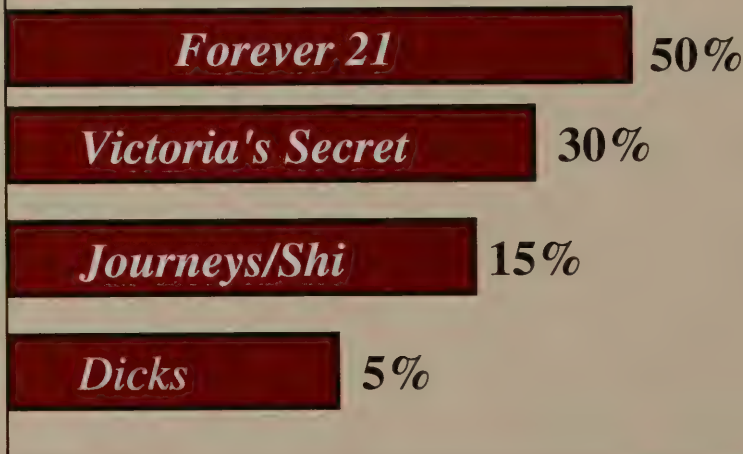

When I look back at what I wore in middle school, I'm not that embarrassed I was a casual kid.
- Sean Anderson, 12

Annie Howell, 11

DANGER: WOMEN SHOPPING:
Penn High School's most popular stores.

My style icons are Rihanna and Cara Delevingne.
- Brianna Ngarambe, 11

Loren McSorley, 12, is always stylish, even in dark pink shorts and navy sweater.

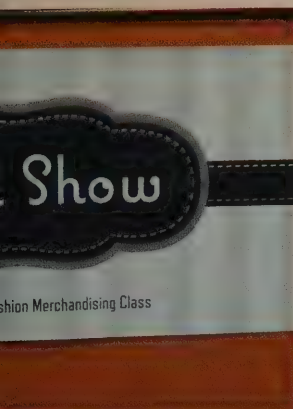

Molly Roberts, 12, wears a black sweater dress with black leggings and brown suede boots. Sean Anderson wears goggles.

Katie Long, 12, sports a grey leather jacket over a striped bodycon dress with black leggings, a fringe scarf and brown riding boots.

The Kingsmen Fashion House

With a school of 3,485 students, there is no doubt that there is style. We live in an age where females wear high low dresses, UGG boots, camouflage, combat boots, Sperry's and North Face jackets, and also an age where Victoria's Secret seems to be ranking supreme in fashion at Penn High School. It also seems like it doesn't matter what the boys wear. They never drift far from their khaki shorts and Nike shoes with Nike socks that ride above their ankles. // Style for many people is a way to show their personality. Who wants to be "basic" when you can be extraordinary? Others disagree, such as senior Eric Lee who says that "style is for people who are just trying to distract others from noticing their faces." But for many others, "Fashion is not something that exists in dresses only. Fashion is in the sky, in the street, fashion has to do with ideas, the way we live, what is happening," said by the famous and always fashionable Coco Chanel. This may be "exaggerated" for a lot but fashion is a reflection of our time. In the age we live in it seems that less is more; skirts and shorts are getting shorter and the popular trends of the late 1990's and early 2000's are more popular then ever. When we look back at our old pictures and yearbooks will we look back with embarrassment or maybe will we even look back in humor? Overall, 2013-2014 is a time to be remembered with new textiles, draping and styles being shown daily.

My favorite online store is Zara.
- Emily Paege, 12

My dream item that I wish I had is the Mulberry Effie Satchel in black spongy pebbled.
- Hannah Moore, 12

Drayton Blankenbaker, 11 downs around in red pants, tan Sperry's and a black jacket.

Helen Gilbride, 12 wears khaki pants with a light grey shirt, a striped jacket, with maroon shoes and a chunky rose gold necklace.

Josie Meiss, 12 is rocking a grey and black striped dress with cool lace detailing, a grey cardigan, black leggings and black combat boots with white leg warmers.

One store I can NOT live without is Free People.
Hailey Holden, 11

I prefer to wear dramatic eye makeup than a bold lip color. I can't pull off red lips. Trust me, I've tried.
Kailey Pate and Natalie Mark, 12

Foreign Exchange

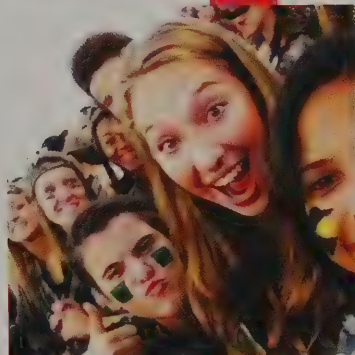

Penn hosted eleven foreign exchange students this year. They came from all parts of the world, Germany, Japan, China, Serbia, Albania, and other countries. They stayed with their host family and participated in American culture and enjoyed Indiana festivities. Five students went to the Grange 4-H Fair where they got to see animals, some of which they had never seen before. Others went to prom and danced all night with new friends, and some played sports for Penn. All, however, met new friends and created new memories. Rebeka Borizani laughed whenever she got asked where she was from. She said, "We knew that people in school and out of school were asking us where we from because of our accents. It was always funny!"

Hamburg, Germany

Rebeka Borizani loved the pizza in America and also the Penn football games.

Tirana, Albania

Mareen Schroder will miss all the American friends and her other foreign exchange friends. She'll also miss getting asked about her accent!

Martin's is the spot to be in morning. Students from Penn grab Starbucks and muffins before school, so of course these girls wanted to join the morning fun.

Japan

Megumi Egusa, from Japan, loved Penn. She said she'll miss Penn and especially her Japanese club friends.

Nora Viljaniemi enjoyed her prom in a pretty green gown. She went with Penn's Wayne Zhang and danced all night long.

Finland

Nora Viljaniemi loved her year at Penn and enjoyed learning in a different way with different people. "Everybody is really nice here," she said.

Pasita Pibulchinda, Megumi Egusa and Rebeka Borizani got their prom experience. They went with dates, friends and groups and danced all night in beautiful dresses with great memories to take home.

Philippines

Pasita Pibulchinda, "Oom", will also miss Penn. She had fun walking the bridge that connects the school to Martin's, where she says she'll miss the morning Starbucks.

Rebeka Borizani and Pasita Pibulchinda participated in the fall festivities. A trend at Penn was to pick out your pumpkin and carve or decorate them with your friends.

DECA

▲ Members of Penn's DECA went to a local elementary school in order to fundraise for MDA (Muscular Dystrophy Association). The school raised money by taping their principal and other faculty to the gym wall with duct tape.

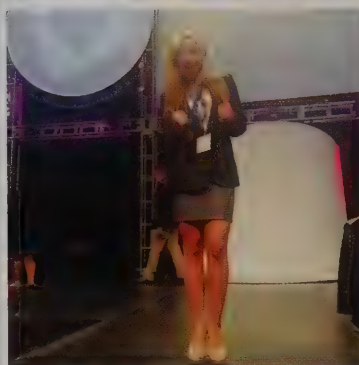

"Joining DECA was the best decision I made. I learned so much from Mrs. Mac and about the business world. Plus I had a blast."

Mimi Ovaert, 12, President

DECA is one of the biggest clubs at Penn, and for good reason. The club allows members to gain experience in the business world as a stepping stone to a successful career beyond high school. There are multiple events students can participate in. Whether it is an impromptu role play or a planned out presentation, many students become successful enough to go to many competitions even beyond the main state conference.

▲ Seniors Amy Kociolek, Ellen Marker, and Jasmine Edison pose for a picture with some friends they met at the national conference that was in Atlanta, Georgia. this year.

Every year, the Central Region Leadership Conference (CRLC) features leadership seminars as well as opportunities to make friends from DECA districts all over the area. This year the conference was in Milwaukee. The group held up their hands for the famous symbol of the club, the "DECA Diamond."

DECA isn't always strictly business, but a lot of fun as well. At the CRLC leadership conference, many students participated in many games, such as this inflatable game of Twister.

Like any good organization, at the end of the year new leaders are elected. This group of leaders stand for a picture as they are eager to take their positions the upcoming year.

Nothing like a group pictures to capture memories with some friends at DECA's state competition.

▲ The Kingsman is a main focal point of the commons area, making it a target spot to advertise for an event coming up or a club. DECA went all out decorating the Kingsman in a suit and briefcase to represent great business attire.

▲ The CRLC wasn't just filled with leadership seminars and business talks, but also with a DECA dance filled with friends, fun, and glow lights.

▲ Seniors Shan Antony and Matt Butler show off their plaque they were awarded at the state competition after months of hard work and preparation. The duo wrote a rebranding plan for Cinemark Movies 14 and ended up getting 4th in their event.

Penn Ultimate Frisbee

At the Penn Ultimate Frisbee club's fifth appearance at the state competition, the team fought hard all weekend for a record of 5-2 and a 5th place finish at state. For most of the players being their first year on the team, they were very successful and worked together well. They also made sure to have a lot of fun, as can be seen by the group picture, featuring a spirit stick donning what seems to be random items as well as a shopping cart. The team found the shopping cart on the top of a disc golf net near the field and put it to use carting around their gear for the tournament.

Seniors

Shan Antony #11

Matt Butler #8

Austin Fyffe #88

"You'll never meet a better group of people than the ones you meet playing ultimate."
-Matt Magaldi

"This was my fourth year playing ultimate and my fourth state tournament. From not even knowing what ultimate is to playing all through high school has been an amazing opportunity for me."
-Matt Butler

◀ Captain Matt Butler takes a water break on the sideline while making sure the spirit stick is in good hands. The spirit stick has stuck with the team for the past three years and is not only passed down from season to season, but new items are added all the time. The spirit stick consists of a dove, a Wheaties cereal box, and an American flag as just some of the items.

"Do it for the dove."

It is clear that this quote might need some explaining. The saying became a regular chant for the team as well as a funny story. The dove came into the picture as a plastic dove became the crown jewel of the spirit stick. The best part is that when someone mispronounced the name of the bird, the pronunciation of the past tense of "dive" stuck. The crowd may have been confused at first, but that was part of the fun.

Most of the students in PNN enjoyed the class mainly because of the teacher, Kevin McNulty, who always brought personality to the class room. Many students said that they had learned a lot and enjoyed coming to class. PNN broadcast 85 shows, which aired during block 3, but also was available on line. the five to 10 minute show included information on all Penn events, including in-depth features on students and staff.

NHS / Student Council

The National Honor Society and Student Council are some of the largest clubs at Penn and for good reason. While StuCo focuses on our school and NHS mainly focuses on service in the community, both work to make the school and community a better place. Both clubs also strive for their members to have great character and show leadership in their clubs.

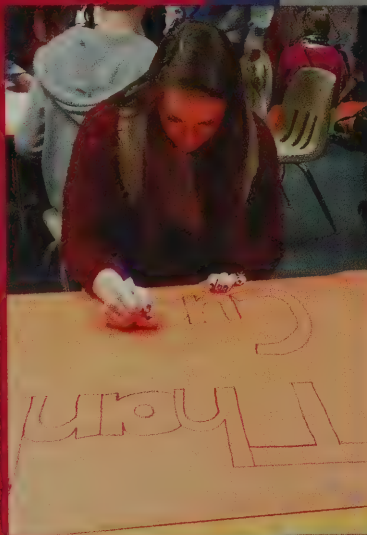

▲ Seniors Aaron Weaver and Kylie Bruetman pose next to the Kingsman while they represent the theme of "stop the negativity" for SPLASH week.

Student Council

One of Student Council's main objectives is to coordinate events for the school. Among these roles are spreading school spirit and raising awareness for the event. Freshman Lexi Marks cuts out letters to decorate the commons.

Student Council

Poster parties are a regular event for people involved in Student Council. Posters are made for numerous events, and are displayed all over the school. This picture was taken at the custodian appreciation week poster party.

MC's Shan Antony and Kylie Bruetman pose with fellow student council member Faadil Shariff before the big pep rally at homecoming, one of student council's first and biggest events.

NHS

With the participation in the blood drive increasing from year to year, it takes a lot of people to make it run smoothly. Members of NHS not only help spread the word to get people to donate, but also help run the event. Seniors Kacie Saar, Elizabeth Wolff, and Lindsey Daooust smile as they work on homework during their free time of running the blood drive.

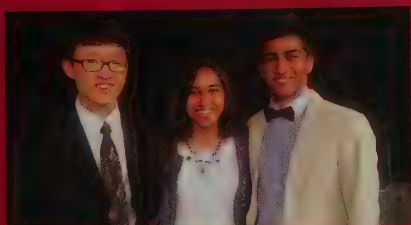

One of NHS's main events they put on twice a year is the blood drive. Students come down to the lobby outside the CPA to donate and give back to the community.

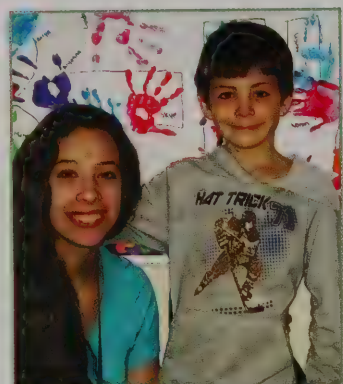

NHS

Induction is always a good time and great day to welcome new members into the National Honors Society. President, Courtney Shreve, Sergeant of Arms, Shan Antony, and Secretary, Lindsey Daooust capture a picture at the last event before they hand over their duties to next year's executive board.

Big Brothers Big Sisters

The Big Brothers Big Sisters program is a year long program where a select group of mentors are chosen from Penn after an application process. The mentors are then paired up with elementary school children in the program. The "bigs" and "littles" are paired and work together every week during block 1 study hall. The bigs visit the elementary school of their little one day a week where they help the students with classwork, subjects they're struggling with and, most importantly, they check on their home lives and how the littles' lives are. This is an extremely unique program because it really allows the students to create a unique relationship and grow throughout the year.

Freshman Mentors

The Freshman Mentors program, led by counselors Maddie Watkins and Marni Cronk, is an exciting way for the new freshmen class to learn about Penn and build a feeling of comfort for their new surroundings. The mentors do a great job every year of creating relationships with the students they mentor. Both the freshman and the upperclassmen enjoy their time together. Freshmen Mentors, a program unique to Penn High School, is a time of the week that both the mentors and the freshmen look forward to. After being mentored, sophomores through seniors have the opportunity to be mentors themselves and help the new freshmen go through their freshman year just like they did with a little guidance.

Everyone Needs a Right-hand Man

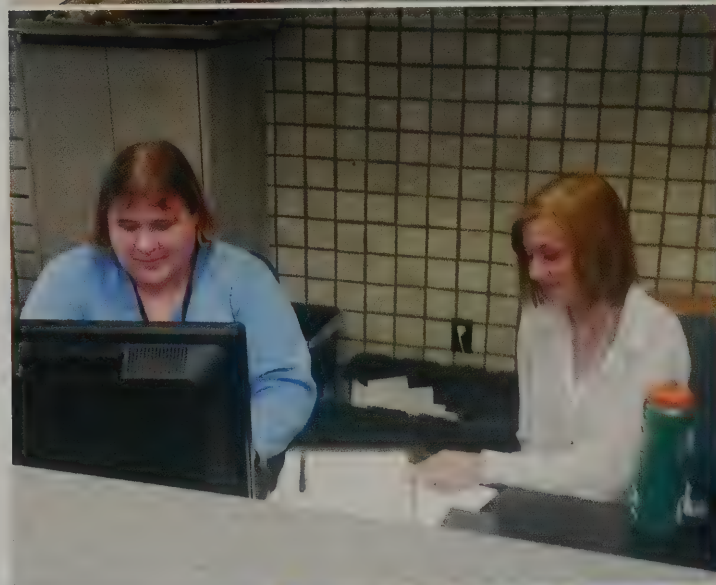

Student & Athletic Assistants Trainers

Many teachers and faculty members during each year use student assistants to help them get their heavy workload done. Student assistants do things like fill out paperwork, run passes, answer the phone, file papers, make copies, alphabetize, answer questions, and work the desk while a staff member is out. The privilege of being a student assistant is only extended to juniors and seniors who are well qualified and reliable. "We get to learn practical things and I'd rather be busy helping out than sitting in study hall," said Lydia Gruber, 11.

To thank the students, the teachers and staff members hold numerous events and parties around the holidays. They often throw a Thanksgiving, Halloween, combined holidays, valentines, and spring themed. Students and faculty members bring food and drinks to share with everyone. When the office or teacher the students work for isn't busy with work for the students to do they use it to get homework done and study for classes. All of the teachers and faculty members agree that homework comes first. "It's much quieter and I enjoy it much better than study hall," said Ashley Adamczyk, 11. "I feel much more comfortable and relaxed." Out of Penn's 3485 students, 397 give up their study hall to student assist. This 1.1% percent of the student body helps get the job done.

Theater Shorts

December 5, 2013

How do you develop a play with originality and drama that's also intriguing? The drama students know how to do just that. Every year, Penn puts on Theater Shorts, where they perform five short plays, written and directed by drama students. This year the plays in Theater Shorts were co-produced by Alexandra Penland, 11, and Megan Nichols, 11, who said, "All the actors, directors and writers worked really hard and we were impressed by how all the plays turned out." In the audience that night and a student in the drama department was Caitlin Stout, a junior, who said, "All the plays were really good but my favorite was Crimson Lane." Crimson Lane was in black and white and was supposed to be portrayed as a television show of a murderous home. When the lights go out, people die. Only it was no TV show. Thrillers like this one were common at that December night's show. Another successful year of theatre shorts that was original, dramatic AND intriguing.

"You need three things in the theater--the play, the actors and the audience--and each must give something."

UTOPIA

Written and Directed by Destinee Flowers

This drama takes place in the future after a war with China, ruled by a terrible sovereign, where the people in the town revolt. This play was loved by many and incorporated a dystopian feel. Destinee Flowers did a great job with this play.

Above Cloud Nine

Written and Directed by Leslie E. Bennett

This romantic comedy was set on a plane where six different people and three separate stories came together. It's funny, romantic, suspenseful, and most of all, suspenseful. The plane starts to go down!

Love is Crazy

Written and Directed by Chase Andrea

A dystopian, zombie apocalyptic world where a young girl comes across two strangers; only, one of them is a zombie. The girl is in denial but the death of her friend proves her wrong. This thrilling, suspenseful and futuristic play was a must see.

Alienna Worthen, 11, reflected a crazy Valley Girl, Jessie Fuller, who was on spring break in this romantic comedy.

Noah Davis-Cheshire, 12, and Billie Bennett, 12, portrayed the characters of a zombie, Frank, and crazy, in-denial girl Lori.

Accompanist Andrew Napolitan played songs with each of the individual choirs. He worked with each of the individual classes along with the two conductors to perfect the pieces.

The Symphonic Choir, a group containing Womens' Chorale and Concert Choir, gathered in Times Square for a group photo. The group is a performance level choir that travels every two years. This last year the Penn Symphonic Choir traveled to New York City and Sang in Avery Fisher Hall at the famous Lincoln Center.

Musicians' Corner

Molly Sandler, 12, played bass during a portion of the concert to accompany the choir.

Camden Smith, 12, played drums during the closing set of songs and along with Chamber Choir.

Lauren Nidea, 11, played piano for the Chamber Choir during the winter concert.

Abigail Pitts, 10, played the oboe during "Under the Winter Moon" to compliment the Girls' Choir.

1. Taylor Horn, 12, Brody Balsley, 11, and Chase Andrae, 11, danced and sang during the Chamber Choir set. The Chamber Choir sang a combination of funny songs, such as "We Need a Little Christmas," and more heartfelt selections, such as "I'll Be Home for Christmas."

2. Kirstan Golba-Ingles, 12, sang during the candle light processional. The Penn Choirs sang four songs in the dark and then proceeded with the concert. The audience almost always gasps when the lights dim and the candles flicker on.

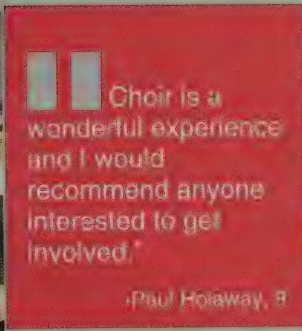

3. The boys of the Singing Kingsmen belted out their two selections, "The Boar's Head Carol" and "The Huron Indian Carol" for the holiday concert.

4. Julia Gries, 12, Mary Grace Ahearn, 11, and Katherine Mills, 12, sang around the tree portraying holiday cheer.

Chris Sikorski and John Graham played the cello.

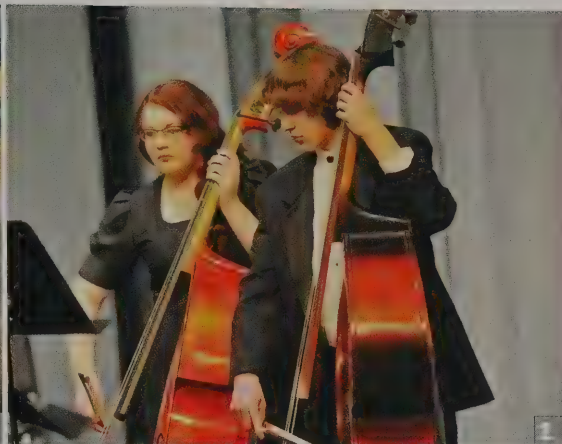

1 Joanna Stochitolu, 10, played the violin. She liked orchestra, for both its music and the company of others.

2 Juliana Rupert, 9, played cello. She liked orchestra because it's fun to play, and liked playing fast-paced songs.

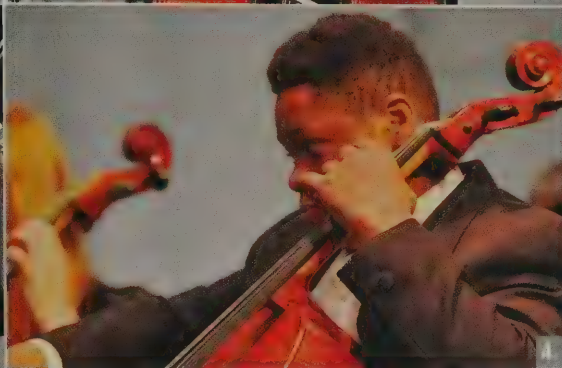

3 Drayton Blankenbaker, 11, played the cello. He enjoyed orchestra a lot, and he loved the challenge of a new piece given to him.

4 Ashley Price, 10, cellist, said her favorite part is when she performs at concert when it all comes together.

1. Caroline Massey, 9, played viola. She liked orchestra because she enjoys playing with friends and her peers.

2. Amelia Frasier, 9, and Michael Herrman, 10, played bass. Frasier liked having a skill that no one else has and also likes the people she meets.

3. Choyenne Brickley, 10, played violin. She loved getting to play different types of music, but her favorite music is classical.

4. Anthony Thompson, 10, played the cello. Thompson liked orchestra, because he has a love for music.

Man of La Mancha

I JUST TRY TO BE HONEST AND TRUE TO THE CHARACTER AND PLAY THE PART.- DENZEL WASHINGTON

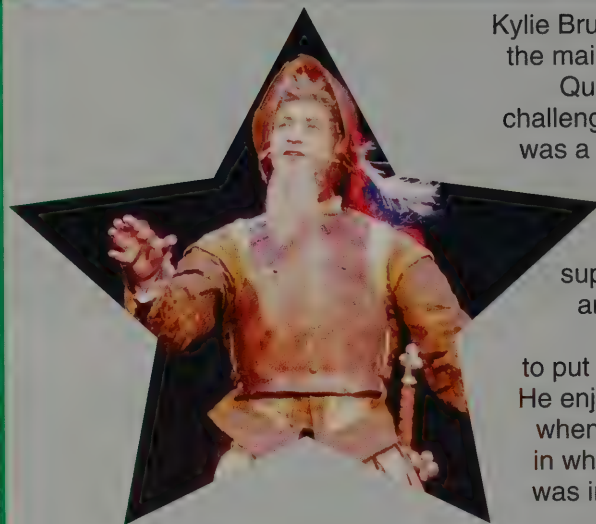

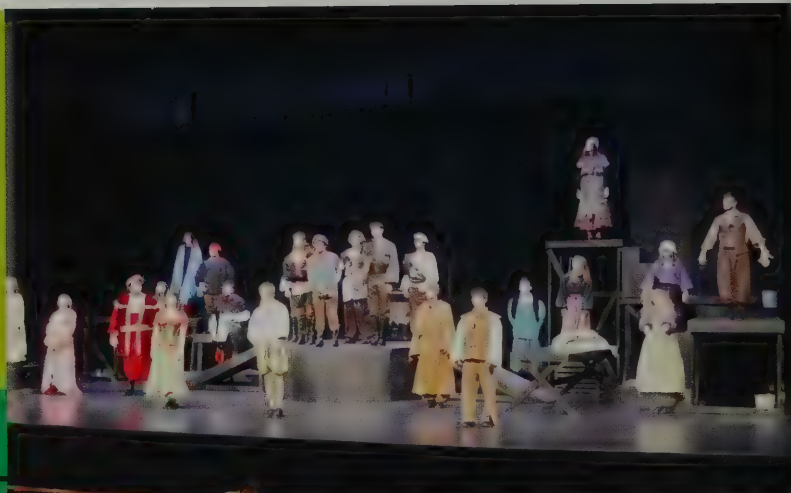

"This is one of the best musicals I've ever seen since Fiddler on the Roof," said Principal Steve Hope. (Fiddler on the Roof was performed at Penn High School in 2000.)

Man of La Mancha was a remarkable show and one of the great theatre successes. This is a play-within-a-play, based on Miguel de Cervantes' Don Quixote. It is a poignant story of a dying man whose impossible dream takes over his imagination. The songs, "It's All the Same," "Dulcinea," "I'm Only Thinking of Him," and "The Impossible Dream" remain in the audiences's thoughts and soul well after seeing the show. Don Quixote's dream is Everyman's dream. His adventures are Everyman's great adventures.

"My favorite moment during the musical was at the very end because of the moment when the entire cast was completely in tune with one another, and the theme of the show really came through and our hard work really paid off!" Alyse Caurro, 10

"In the musical I felt as if I really connected with my character as well as with the other cast members," Josh Beckett, 10

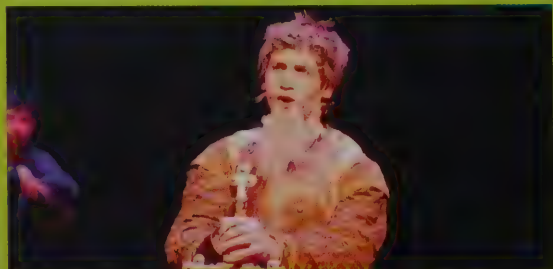

Kylie Bruetman, 12, played the main lead, Cervantes Quixote, which was a challenge for him. His role was a dramatic role. The people that he worked with supported each other and they all pulled together to put on a performance. He enjoyed his character when he found the best in whatever situation he was in and fighting for a noble cause.

Julia Gries, 12, liked playing her role that was a lot different than herself. Her character, Aldonza/Dulcinea was a challenge for her to pull off. Gries enjoyed her cast members. She said, "I think that's the closest I've ever been with a cast." Gries really enjoyed how her character was a lot different than herself. She learned that she was a lot more capable with her acting.

Kylie Bruetman, 12, played the character Cervantes/Quixote.

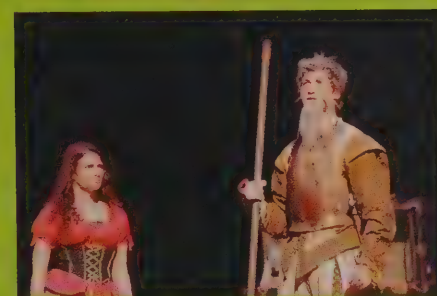

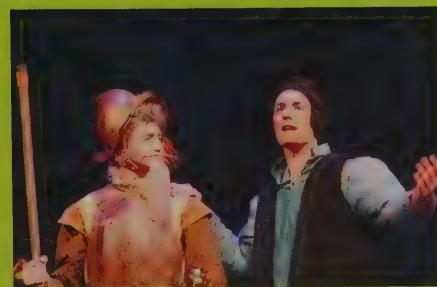

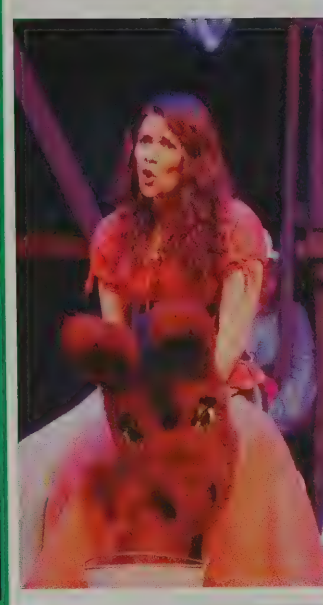

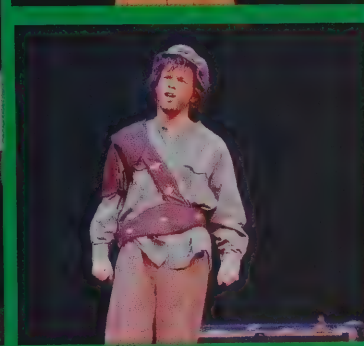

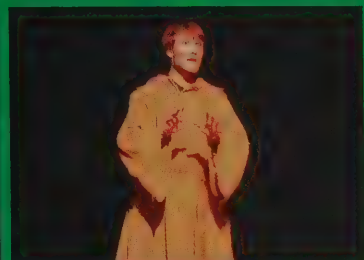

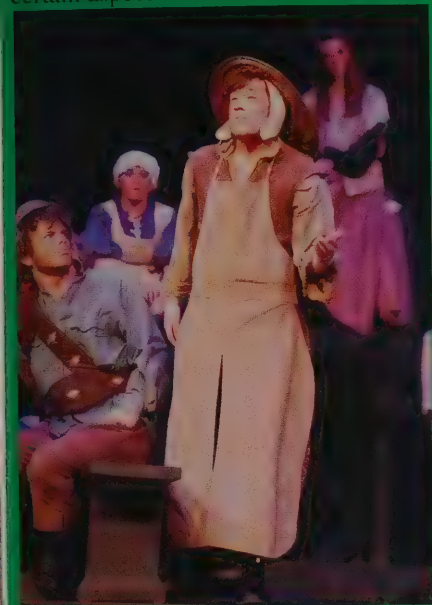

Julia Gries, 12, played a prisoner character, Aldonza/Dulcinea.

Justin Hueni, 12, played the character Manservant/Sancho.

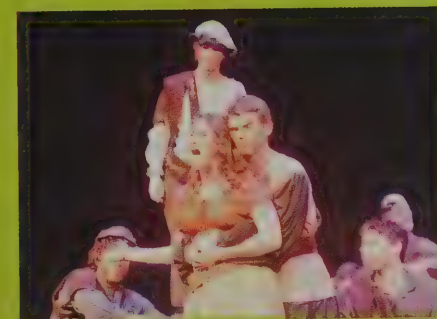

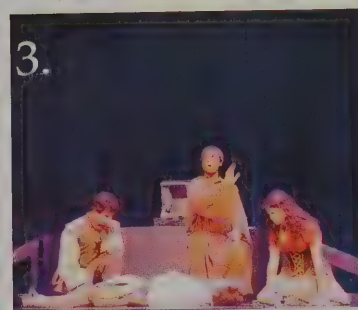

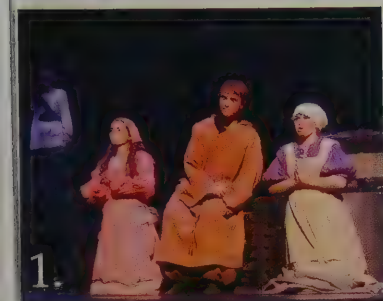

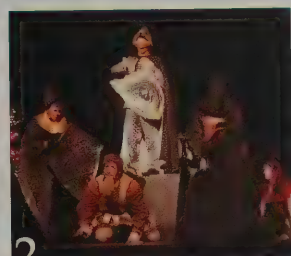

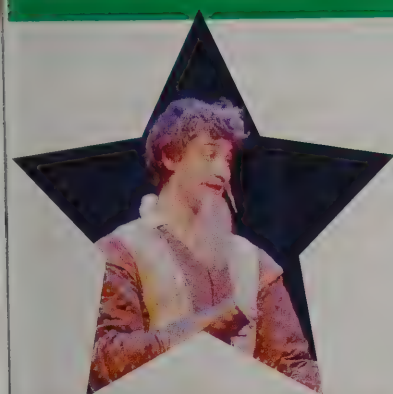

Chase Andreae, 11, played the role of Padre which was an interesting role for him. Andreae mentioned that it was a lot different from the character of Sky Masterson that he played in last years musical Guys and Dolls. His favorite role that he has ever played at Penn was his freshman year when his friend wrote a theatre short play and he played the role of Damian, who Andreae said is kind of like the character Gaston from Beauty and the Beast. // Ian Riggs, 12, played the role of Barber which was an interesting role for him because at first it didn't fit into the play but then it came all together. His part was a small part but there was a time in the play when he got to be in the spotlight. Riggs was shocked with everyone's performance. He said, "I could just go on for days about how great it was." His favorite moment was the first day of the performance. The one thing that he most enjoyed about his character is that his character had a certain aspect to him.

Favorite Moment:

During rehearsal for one of the scenes, Director Dave Dutton had the cast shove Julia Gries around and she fell down. "It was great," said Gries. "It was method acting."

Penn Students journeyed to Bristol, Indiana, to help build two homes with the Elkhart County Habitat for Humanity.

Nicole Polhamus, 11, balanced in the beams to secure the trusses.

Penn students joined other schools, such as Marian and Adams, to "Rock the House." High school students raised the funds for the house and helped construct it.

Megan Peffley and Hunter Kammeyer, both 11, wield their claw hammers. Many tools, such as hammers, are donated by companies such as Lowe's. Students sign a waiver saying they won't sue Habitat if they get injured on the job.

J.R. Buda, 10, constructed a storage shed for one of the builds in Elkhart. The house was built on land that was donated to Habitat, breathing life back into a blighted neighborhood.

Students must be at least 16 to do basic construction work. Students must be 18 to use power tools and get on the roof. Students younger than 16 are limited to landscaping only.

Tyler Noie, 11, hammered the fascia onto the eaves of a storage shed. Noie always had a good attitude. Noie and others donated "sweat equity" to help a deserving family get a home. Most houses cost about $80,000 to build. Since the labor is all volunteer, homeowners can own a home for less than half the cost of renting an apartment.

Basketball

The Kingsman basketball team had a very successful season ending with a 23-2 overall record, and class 4A sectional and NIC winners. This record is a school best, replacing 20-2 in 1974-75.

The Kingsman's basketball season came to an end when Lake Central made a missed shot with :03 left to give the Indians a heartbreaking 57-55 victory in the Class 4-A Michigan City regional championship.

Jordan Geist, 11, earned first team recognition on the IBCA/Subway Underclass All-State Team. He scored 443 points during the season, for a 17.7 average. Billy Doslak scored 304. Geist was also named to first team NIC, and Coach Al Rhodes was NIC coach of the year. Doslak was named to second team NIC, and Christian Wittendorf and Andrew Kimm received honorable mention status.

COACH AL RHODES

Coach Al Rhodes is an extremely humble and intelligent coach who has won the respect of all players and fans. Rhodes, a Penn graduate, was named one of six Bob King Coaches of the Year by the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association, and is 83-51 in six seasons with Penn.

Christian Wittendorf, 12, celebrated after scoring a basket for Penn. Wittendorf had a very successful season and will attend the Merchant Marine Academy.

Taylor Brooks, 12, gets past the heads of his opponents to score some points for his team. Brooks was a leader on this year's team.

Billy Doslak, 11, defended the ball as he prepared to shoot. Doslak is one of Penn's shooting guards and has been on varsity for all three years of his PBB career.

Freshman & Junior Varsity BASKETBALL

Both the freshman and JV basketball teams had great seasons this year. The freshman team, led by Coach Sierzputowski, had a very respectable season winning 13 games and only losing 5 games. The boys spent long hours in the gym getting stronger and more skilled. The team works year-round on improving their game. The freshman teams work with the JV team to learn new techniques and gain experience with returning players. The JV team had an amazing season. With 14 wins and 2 losses, the boys were very pleased with their season. One win that won't be forgotten was the game against Valparaiso. The JV team fought hard and played well; however, their efforts were not enough against the Vikings. For the freshman team, their defeat over Northridge was incredible and well earned. Both teams knew their skills and were led by two great coaches, Jim Modlin and Joe Sierzputowski. The boys plan to continue their successes the next few years at Penn High School on the JV and varsity teams.

Matt Trehwella, 10

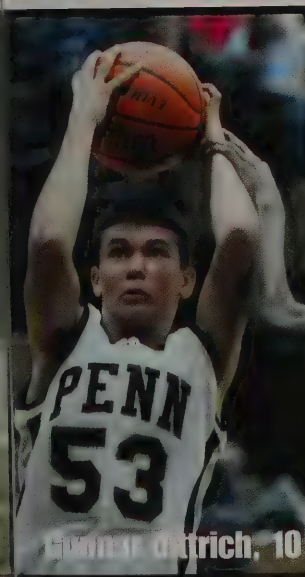

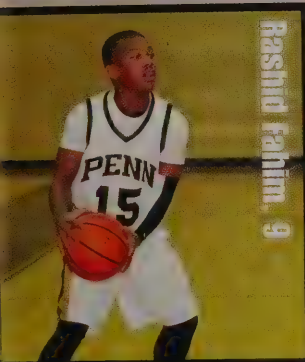

Matt Trehwella had an amazing season on the JV basketball team. His love for the game paid off and he made an appearance in a few varsity games throughout the year. He will continue his basketball career next year on the varsity team.

Coaches' Corner

"I have been the head freshman coach for six years now. I love competition and the game of basketball, which is part of the reason why I am a coach. Another enjoyable part of being the freshman coach is seeing who works hard and develops from my team to go on to play on the varsity team."
- Coach Modlin

Caroline Buhr, 12

The girls' varsity basketball team finished off the 2013-2014 season almost perfect! The Lady Kingsmen ended their year with an overall record of 27-2. The team posted much success in the regular season games knocking out each team with a bang. The girls battled their way through the NIC conference, winning for the 5th year in a row. Along with all the excitement in regular season, the team celebrated Coach Kristi Ulrich's 100th career win. "Coach K is a remarkable coach--it's great to experience this milestone with her and play for her these past four years," said Maya Solomon, 12.

The girls continued their success by winning the Sectional, Regional, and Semi-State titles beating SB Riley, SB Adams, Mishawaka, Merrillville, and Logansport in the process. The Lady Kingsmen continued their season by traveling down to Terre Haute, Indiana, to compete in the State Finals against Bedford North Lawrence. They didn't capture the win, but they did return home with the State-Runner Up Title. Although the season fell a few points short of a state championship, the girls have a lifetime of accomplishments to be proud of. Many prestigious awards were given to the Penn girls during the season, including Caroline Buhr - 1st Team NIC and 1st Team All-State; Jess Alexander - 2nd Team NIC and Kiwanis Student Athlete Award; Camryn Buhr - 2nd Team NIC and Honorable Mention All-State; and Lauren Ellenberger - Honorable Mention NIC. The 2013-2014 Lady Kingsmen truly left their mark in Penn's girls' basketball history and the seniors left with an unforgettable last high school season.

COACH'S CORNER

This season for the Penn Lady Kingsmen was filled with a lot of highs and lows. Early on we had to deal with suspensions, and injuries and then some more injuries later in the season. However, this group was able to persevere and pull through it. They showed a tremendous amount of heart, passion and pride not only for their school, but for each other. The Lady Kingsmen used their defensive intensity and effort to pave their way to success throughout the season. This group was truly a special one and have proven to everyone what "team" is all about.

"Some of the greatest accomplishments we've had as a team this season are: Winning a record 5th straight NIC championship in a row; winning Regionals on our home floor was really awesome, especially for our senior class; making it to the State Championship-- when no one thought that we were capable of being able to go that far."

JV/Freshman Basketball

Both the junior varsity and freshman girls' basketball teams were very successful this year. The junior varsity team finished the season 16-3 and the freshman team finished 11-3. Even though they didn't win every game they learned from their mistakes and finished the season very well. The team put in many countless hours to finish how they did. Caitlyn Stabelfeldt lives by the idea that "You only get out of it what you put into it, so play your hardest and leave it all on the floor." Not only did they play their hardest, but they were able to have fun while doing it. Many players also had a great time, and loved being able to bond with their team as well as at team dinners. They not only came together off the court, but on the court when games were close and they know they needed accomplish something. Overall both coaches were proud of their teams of all their accomplishments and successes throughout their seasons.

Casey Morton, 10

Kelsie Knapp, 10

Knapp, 10, said her favorite game was against Mishawaka, because it's always nice to beat a team that has girls that you are friends with on the team and they are their biggest rivals. She's also says she loves playing with her teammates and can now call them her best friends.

Season Highlights

Junior Varsity

- ★ Penn JV won the Washington Holiday tournament, beating South Bend Washington 38-30, and also beating South Bend Clay 42-21.
- ★ Penn JV went 7-1 in their conference which was also a major accomplishment for the Kingsman.

Freshman

- ★ The Penn freshman team won the Penn tournament to finish the season. Playing two games a day takes a toll on the body, yet they still came out fighting for the win.

Overall Record

16-3

The Penn Junior Varsity team finished the season 16-3. The Freshman team finished the season 11-3.

Junior Varsity Coach: Kerri Lines
Freshman Coach: Lindsay Harroff

Coach Lines said, "This season started off with many challenges; however, we finished the season very strong. The girls worked hard and continued to improve each day. I couldn't be happier with my players. We won the JV Washington Holiday tournament over Christmas break, which was exciting. We also finished the season with a winning record of 16-3. Even though we had some losses, the girls learned from their mistakes and improved for the next game. They did an excellent job this year with all the challenges they had to face." // Coach Harroff said, "The 2013-2014 Freshman Girls Basketball team had a

Competition Poms

you know!

The season for the Competition Poms team starts way before their first competition in early December. Tryouts were in the Spring of 2013 and practices began at the beginning of August. This long season requires members that are dedicated, hard working, and have a passion for what they do. Many of the members have been dancing for years for companies in the area.

This year the team was in the elite category for poms. This is the highest division which means that they were competing against the best teams in the state. They ended the season with two first places and one second place during the regular season, and first place at regionals and third at the state finals.

State ~

The 2013-2014 Competition Poms team won third place at the state finals this year. This is a very impressive ending to a successful season.

Regional Champs

This year the team was the elite pom Northern regional champions. They received their highest score of the season. Alli Hall, 12, said about the win, "It was really rewarding to see all of our hard work this season pay off."

~ Captains ~

The senior captains this year were Alli Hall and Josie Meiss. Both girls were on the competition squad every year they were on poms. Alli made competition as a freshman while Josie made it her sophomore year.

Josie Meiss, 12, did a lyrical solo this season at the competitions. She won first place at her first competition and placed well the rest of the season. Josie started dancing when she was 5 years old and continues to dance and teach at Flints. Next year she plans to go to Ball State and be a part of the dance program there.

Andrea Speedy, 12, did a jazz solo this season. Andrea started dancing when she was five years old. Andrea said about her solo, "I really enjoyed doing a solo again this year. My team has been an incredible support system."

Juniors Marina Jameson, Hailey Mramor, and Sara Brumbaugh performed an ensemble at the competitions. Senior captain Josie Meiss choreographed the dance and it was called The Good, The Bad, and The Innocent. These girls ended up getting fourth at the state finals in small ensemble which was a huge accomplishment.

The Coaches

The competition poms team was coached by Cindi Minegar (left) and assisted by Lyndsey Epley (right). Epley was coached by Minegar when she was on poms at Penn. Coach Minegar started poms at Penn and has been coaching here for 39 years. Captain Josie Meiss, 12, said about her coach, "Coach Cindi is not only a great poms coach, but a great life coach as well. She knows that in order to be successful in dance and in life, you have to work extremely hard. Cindi pushed me to my limits the past few years, and I am so grateful to have been coached by her."

Seniors

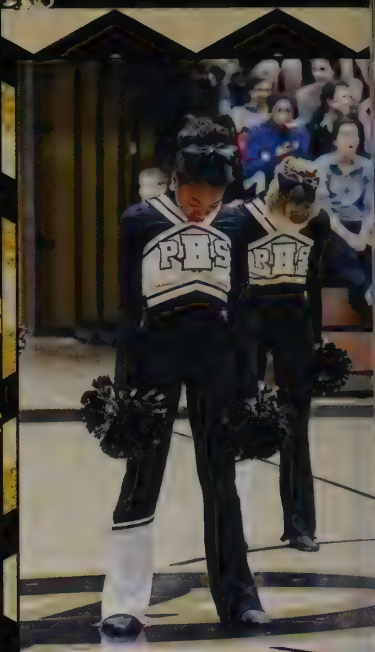

Varsity/Junior Varsity Poms

"The music is on!" The nerves are rushing through the bodies of the members of the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams, but the moment they hear the coach yell this at halftime of the Boys Basketball games, adrenaline overtakes the body. Now is the moment to show the adoring crowd how much sweat, heart, and hard work went into perfecting the dances. This year, the Junior Varsity squad was coached by former Penn Competition Poms alumni, Hannah Richards. The Varsity squad was coached by Cindy Bernard. After practicing for six months and many countless hours of dance, the girls proved just how much they love being a part of Penn Poms.

Varsity

Junior Varsity

JV and Varsity squad members, Ciara Daeger, Megan Beehler, Salena Gratzol, and Sarah Lang pose for a photo before the JV girls perform at the halftime. Lang has been a member of the Penn Poms squads for two years.

FRESHMAN Cheyenne Brickley did a single turn during her JV dance. Turns are one of the hardest technical movements in dance because much balance is needed. Brickley always sported fantastic facials while performing as well.

THE Varsity Poms team performs many different types of dances each season. One of the favorites is the kick routine. This season the girls showcased a fast paced kick routine to the song "Pom Poms" by the Jonas Brothers.

Indya Weathers was the only Poms squad member to be on two teams: Competition and Varsity. Weathers danced as a substitute for competition members who became injured throughout the season. She was such a quick learner and hardworker, competing at competitions and performing at the Varsity basketball halftimes.

Boys' Swimming

The boys started off their season by defeating their competition meet after meet. The seven seniors helped the freshmen and the rest of the underclassmen adjust to the team and led by example. In the end, Penn won third place at state, their best finish since 2005, when they were second.

One swimmer, Mate Kovacs, 11, immigrated from Hungary to the United States when he was a young boy, and moved to Penn schools before last school year. He helped set two relay school records last season, and has continued his excellence this year. Coach Jess Preston said, "Mate has gotten physically stronger and really looks like he has what it takes to win a state title." "I love the sprints," Kovacs said. "I love the relays a lot because you're swimming for the team and those are sprint races, too."

Seniors showed the underclassmen what it takes to be on the team, all the hard work that goes in to it and most importantly, how to always, just keep swimming.

Wayne Zhang will be attending Yale Univeristy, with a scholarship to dive as a Yale Bulldog.

Girls' Swimming & Diving

THEY SAID

IT

"Being on a team with your best friends makes those 6:00 a.m. practices in the morning much more bearable."
-Annie Spalding, 12

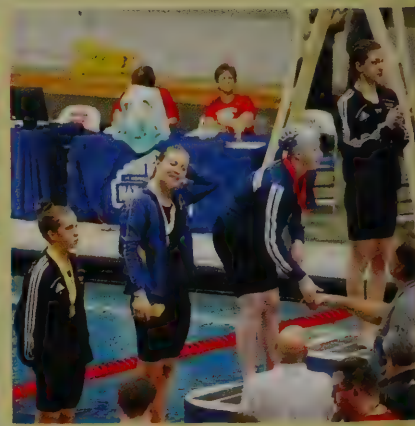

"Penn Swimming isn't just a sport, it's a family."
-Shannon Domal

"Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much" was one of Bethany Galat's favorite quotes when describing her senior season.

The girls' swimming and diving team ended the year with an impressive undefeated season--not only this year but the past three seasons as well. The team also won NIC and the Sectional Championship. Eleven swimmers and one diver went to State with an unprecedented five school records broken. Bethany Galat won two state titles, and Annie Spalding, Casey Ziegert, Emily Meckstroth and Galat won runner-up finish in the 200 free relay. Kimberly Hochstedler joined Galat, Spalding and Ziegert for the fifth-place finish in the 200 medley relay. Spalding finished fourth in the 100 breaststroke and Meckstroth won fourth-place the 500 free. The team was coached by Jess Preston who was NIC co-coach of the year. Preston has been the head girls' swim coach for six years. // Galat was NIC MVP. Penn swimmers filled almost all the spots on NIC teams, including Galat, Spalding, Hochstedler, Ziegert, Meckstroth, Brianne Oberlie, Anna Darr, Kayla Molar, Danielle Forbes, Taylor Bush, Leeanne Cecil and Alexis Dodge. "We couldn't have asked any more from our girls," Coach Preston told the South Bend Tribune.

This year's sectional meet was the 12th straight sectional title won by the Kingsmen. Sectionals took place at Riley High School and Penn swept the board with four sectional records and wins in almost every race.

The season ended with a culminating State meet where the Penn girls finished in 4th place. It was the fastest state meet in Indiana history with a total of nine state records broken from all of the schools present.

Fun Without Sun

The swimming and diving team is dedicated and has two practices a day all of winter. The team has practice early in the morning and when they leave the pool at night the sun has already set. Many swimmers state that they don't see the sun for the winter months during season. This dedication still leaves room for the team to have a lot a fun in and out of the pool, whether it's dressing up to support the guys' team or having fun at practice.

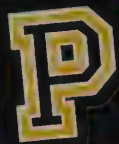

Seniors

This senior group was made up of six swimmers and a diver who have been together since their freshman year, along with an exchange student from Finland who was a diver. Along with a successful season, many of the girls have signed to play a sport in college, continuing their athletic career.

Varsity Wrestling

The Penn boys' varsity wrestling team had a very successful season. They started out the season strong. Coach Brad Harper said, "The team got stronger and stronger every week." Harper also said, "The best way to fit all of the talented wrestling into one meet was to divide them into three teams and send them to compete in different varsity matches at the same time." Harper's knowledge got himself to be the League Champion Coach of the Year. "Penn's record was impeccable this season," says a source. However, at the State Championship, Penn was runner up for the State title. Being a state runner up is not a bad thing by any measure but Penn fought and wanted so much more. Zach Davis, 12, and Chase Osborn, 11, both got second state runner up honors in their weight classes.

Coach Brad Harper pep talks Chase Osborn, 11, at the State Championship match.

"The pain you feel today will be the strength
you feel tomorrow."

Zachary Davis, 12, lifted Mishawaka's Trent Balentine in the 126-pound weight class. Davis has been wrestling since middle school and one of his dreams was to win the state championship.

Joey Mammolenti, 11, reacted as he competed against Mishawaka's Clint Proctor in the 160-pound weight class. In the end, Mammolenti took control and won his match.

Kobe Woods, 10, wrestles Mishawaka's Chase Deal at 195-pounds for the crown. "Kobe is a strong member and asset to this team," said a teammate.

Highlights of the season:

1. Zach Davis, 12, won most valuable player honors in the All-Northern Indiana Conference wrestling team.
2. Both Chase Osborn, 11, and Zach Davis, 12, won second state runner up honors at the State Championship.
3. Drew Hildebrandt at 106 lbs., Zach Davis at 126 lbs., Chase Osborn at 170 lbs., Jeff Wiseman at 182 lbs. and Kobe Woods at 195 lbs. each won their openers for Penn's first day at State

Varsity

This year's hockey team had a very successful season. The boys had many memorable accomplishments. One accomplishment that really stood out was when they beat their fellow city opponents South Bend Saint Joe, in a regular season matchup game. Penn Hockey had not beaten Saint Joe for the past six years. This was a huge victory and really helped the Kingsmen go in strong to the state play-offs. They managed to punch themselves a ticket to the 3A State Finals after beating Homestead, Lakeshore, and the South Stars. The Kingsmen faced Zionsville in the State championship game. The Kingsmen fought till the end, but could not come away with a victory, with the final score 4-1. With a state appearance the boys had a very successful season.

CJ Banashak

Banashak scored an impressive 25 goals this season, and led the Kingsmen with most goals scored for the 2013-2014 season.

Kevin Calhoun

Calhoun was a strong offensive player this season contributing 11 goals as well as 14 assists.

Sam Hiss

Hiss was a strong defensive player for the Kingsmen. It was not uncommon to see Hiss throwing opponents against the boards.

Cole Longenecker

Longenecker had a respectable 2 goals and 2 assists for the 2013-2014 season.

Austin Reid

Reid contributed 8 goals and 10 assists for the Kingsmen during the 2013-2014 season.

Nick Savage

Savage was a key contributor to the offensive lineup. He was second to Banashak with most goals scored with 23, and led the Kingsmen with an astonishing 38 assists.

Zack Stanifer

Stanifer was a huge offensive contributor with 19 goals and 29 assists. Stanifer made Team Indiana and represented Penn well. Stanifer will continue playing hockey next year at Adrian College.

Riley Vandevoorde

Vandevoorde was one of two co-captains for the Kingsmen. Vandevoorde was the starting goalie and did an exceptional job at tending goal for the season.

On senior night the boys got to rock their new camo jerseys. With their "puck dynasty" slogan for the year these jerseys were very fitting. Their slogan plays off of the newly famous television show Duck Dynasty. These special jerseys helped the team secure a 3-0 win against Valpo.

This year's hockey team was very fortunate with a total of eight seniors. The bond between this group of seniors is something special. They're able to take care of business on the ice, as well as goof around in their spare time. When they are not wearing their hockey jerseys, they are more than likely to be wearing Chubbies.

English 10H and AP Art History seminar

— SNOWBALL —

Starting this year administration took a different avenue for Snowball's music. Penn senior, Nate Ohlson, was asked to DJ. It was a different type of music than past dances, but there was a lot of positive feedback from students. Ohlson stated, "It's hard to please everyone, including the students, administrators, and myself, but overall I think everyone enjoyed themselves. Shout out to those last kids who stayed until the end. Also, shout out to Robert for properly booty-ing it down. Sometimes you just have to play 144 BPM Mayth-style German hands up in front of a crowd of 1000 disinterested teenagers."

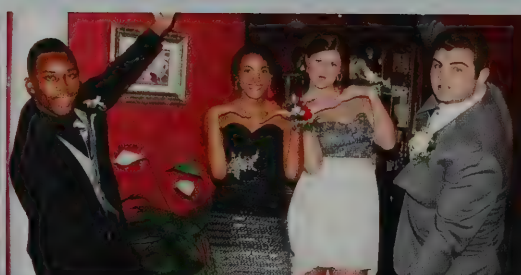

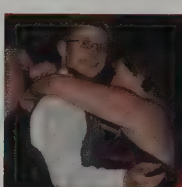

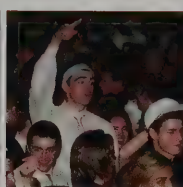

- 1 Senior best friends, Courtney Shreve and Annabelle Russell, hug tight for a pretty picture.
- 2 Rachel Page, Paige Dooley, Jasmyne Mangual, Alyse Caurro, Ashlee Rorie, Rachel Peters, Chase Obrochta, Kate Scott huddle together for a "girls night out pic".
- 3 Two fabulous couples in red and pink are all smiles as they dance the night away at the 2014 Snowball
- 4 Abigail Daggy, Emily Dobay, Alexis Harder, Alex Schwindaman, and Christine Cunningham put their hands in for a "corsage pic."
- 5 A group of junior boys take the stage to smile while their dates take a break on pictures.

TALENT SHOW

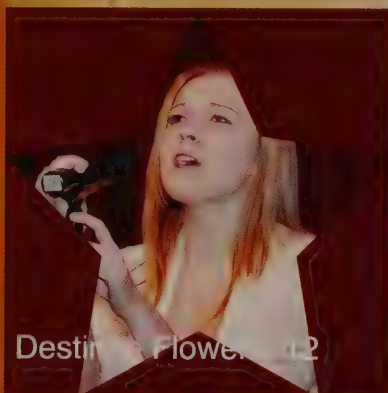

"I believe that every person is born with talent."

-Maya Angelou

After having auditions snowed out for several days, and then having rehearsals cut short, this year's Talent Show was a huge success. The judges, Michael Coffee, Mary Nicolini and Jim Sauer, awarded a first, second, and third place winner, and there was also a people's choice award where the audience had to vote. The range of acts was impressive: there were students who sang solos/duets, played an instrument, danced, did stand up comedy, yo yo, and impersonations. The student producers Broderick Balsley, Ashley Szumski, and Bailey Hayes were a huge help with the talent show. Kylie Bruetman and Brian Richmond emceed the show, introducing acts with a blend of comedy and seriousness.

Second place went to Kalee A. Masterson, 12. She did a Suessical the Musical vocal song called "All For You."

MC's: THEIR REMARKS

It wouldn't be the talent show with out the MC's, Kylie Bruetman and Brian Richman. They did an amazing job presenting the next acts, keeping the audience laughing during breaks and of course announcing the winners. The 10 seconds that they had before they started performing they wrote down their best jokes. They felt confident knowing that whatever happens everyone would've loved them anyways. Kylie is going to Purdue to study business and music and Brian is going to Notre Dame to study business.

Paige Sizemore, 11, and Cooper Baldwin, 9, sang a duet together to the song "Lucky" that was originally sung by Jason Mraz and Colbie Caillat. Art teacher Becky Hope said that Baldwin always sings in her class, and he and Sizemore decided to sing together.

Chase Andreae, 11

Chase Andreae, 11, and Jane Payton, 11, sang a duet together to the song "Titanium" by David Guetta.

Geni Riley, 12, did a stand up act of comedy. Her topic was "Me, Myself and I."

Tad Sadowski, 12, played the accordion and sang the Beatles' song "Rocky Raccoon." English teacher and judge Jim Sauer, who had Tad in class as a junior, said "Tad's accordion playing was a nice addition to seminar. He has an amazing talent."

Tad Sadowski, 12

Cody Gard, 12, was a one man act to the song "Sail" by Awolnation and won both third place and the people's choice award.

Black KNIGHT

Penn's Robotic Team 135 celebrated an extremely successful season this year. The team brought home victories from two regional competitions allowing them to compete at the national level in Saint Louis, Missouri. There, Team 135 placed sixth. The team has a great season to look back on and reflect for next year. This is the best season the team has had in years, winning their first regional in 16 years and following that victory by yet another win.

The Saga of Leonardo DiCaprio and his Nonexistent Oscar:

It's been 20 years since he was first nominated for an Academy Award, but five nominations later, Leo still hasn't been able to take one home. Why? Because he's too good, because he's too convincing, or because it's just a string of bad coincidences, you can pick your favorite theory.

12 YEARS A SLAVE

The First Academy Awards, held in the Blossom Room of the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel honoring movies released from August 1, 1927 onwards, occurred on May 16, 1929. Only 270 people attended the event (tickets were $5 each) and fifteen statuettes were awarded. The next year, it was heard over a Los Angeles radio station and there has been a broadcast ever since.

Take me out to the ball game!

The varsity baseball team had a very successful season this year. Even though they fell short in Regionals to Hobart, they had many other moments throughout the season that were very accomplishing. The Kingsman had no problem getting a spot to compete in Regionals, easily beating Adams, Riley, and Clay. They came together as a team and performed together to finish their season 27-5. Not only did they perform as a team, many of the players received many awards individually throughout the season. With such great players Penn had when they came together as a team, they were able to show everyone what a great team they were. With ten seniors on the team they were truly a great team, and a team everyone wanted to beat.

The Penn baseball team came together before every game to plan out how they were going to demolish their next opponent. They could almost always come out with that victory.

Colin McNamara, 12, got the homerun against Mishawaka, and was the player leading the team with six home runs.

Coach Greg Dikos earned his 600th win on a 2-1 walk-off win against Riley.

2014 Season Highlights

- ★ Coach Dikos earned his 600th win early in the season against Riley at Penn.
- ★ Sophomore Skylar Szynski, a right hander, pitched a perfect game against Elkhart Central, defending State champs. He threw only 66 pitches in retiring all 21 batters. "That," coach Dikos told the South Bend Tribune, "was amazing."
- ★ Penn secured an 8-7 victory against St. Joseph on senior night for the NIC title.
- ★ Colin McNamara won MVP of the Warsaw Varsity tournament 6-8 with 7 RBIs and 2 triples. #FearTheBeard
- ★ Penn takes home the sectional title after beating Adams 13-6, Riley 5-0, and finally for the sectional championship, a 5-2 win against Clay.

27-5 The Penn kingsman's final record of the 2014 season.

SENIORS

CJ Banashak Banashak, a center fielder for the Kingsmen, received 1st team All-Conference OF. He also had a batting percentage of .432 with 17 RBIs.

Joe DeGeeter DeGeeter, one of the pitchers for the Kingsmen, was 0-1 on the mound.

Cole Harlacher Harlacher, a 3rd basemen and pitcher for the Kingsmen, received 1st team All-Conference 3B, Conference player of the year, and team MVP. Not only did he play 3B for Penn but he also shined pitching, being 7-0 on the mound. He will be playing baseball next year at Wabash.

Andrew Herman Herman, a second basemen for the Kingsmen, unfortunately suffered from a concussion early in the season, and was unable to play for a majority of the season. Although this may have taken him from playing the game he still managed to hold the most double plays.

Elliot Lares Lares, an outfielder for the Kingsmen, received 2nd team All-Conference OF, Hit .336, and had a total of 17 RBIs.

Colin McNamara McNamara, a 1st basemen for the Kingsmen, led the team in RBIs and home runs, with a batting average of .521, with 40 RBIs, and contributed 4 triples as well. Also, he was the team MVP, 1st team All-State and All-Conference 1B, and was selected to be on the North All-Star team. He will continue to play baseball next year at Holy Cross.

Tyler Perry Perry, a catcher for the Kingsmen, was one of the team captains. He also won Academic All-State, and hit .358 with 31 RBIs.

Jake Thoma Thoma, a pitcher for the Kingsmen, finished the season off and tied for first with a 9-1 win/loss pitching record. He also received 1st team All-Conference, and he will continue playing baseball next year at Trine University.

Austin Toth Toth, a short stop for the Kingsmen, also contributed the most double plays. He was 1st team All-Conference SS, a team captain, hit .312 and had 14 RBIs. Next year he will be continuing his baseball career next year at Kalamazoo Valley.

After a snowy, disappointing start, with three NIC losses, Penn started playing like Penn again. They worked hard and ended in a 26-5 season. Coach Beth Zachary has been coaching for five seasons and had a motto on how to play this year. "If you hustle and are a good teammate, things will be OK." After a heartbreaking 4-3 loss to Hamilton Southeastern in the Class 4-A semistate, Coach Zach told the girls, "We WILL be back!" During the wild 7th inning, three freshmen, Danielle Watson, Katie Quinlan and Madelynn Newmann kept the game alive. // Mackenzie Joecken was named softball co-Most Valuable Player and first-team All-Northern Indiana Conference. ★ Brad Robertson stepped down from coaching after 29 years at Penn. He rolled up 250 victories, 9 NIC championships, and 19 sectional wins.

★ Penn tied for 13th at State. State competitors were the 4x800 relay team (seniors Jonathan Koellner, Thomas Gales, Tyler Krathwohl, Christian Wittendorf, Taylor Neff and Thomas Varner, and juniors Jonathan Mader and Hudson Huth); Zach Oakley, 400m; Max Weaver and Deal, 300 hurdles; Gales, 800m; 4x400 relay (Wittendorf, Oakley, Gales, Deal, Jonathan Koellner, Nathan Ohlson, Varner, and Luke Kleppe); Deal and Sabin Gorset, long jump; and Isaiah Cook, shotput. The State meet was in Bloomington the same day as graduation, so many seniors missed commencement to participate.

★ At the sectional meet, Coach Robertson told his team, "Every place counts. You've got to step it up." The team "captured a lot of 'little points' that we didn't get last week," allowing them to move on to regionals.

Boys' Rugby

Penn High school was ranked No. 3 nationally in the single school bracket. They played at the Moose Rugby Grounds in Elkhart for the boys high school national rugby championships. Twenty-four teams from all over the country, including California, Florida and New York, competed. In addition, both varsity and JV won the Midwest School Championships.

Connor Marsh, Carter Jensen, Casey Smith, Travis Katona, Daniel Afa'ese, Zach Biggs, Satchel Carmine, Josh Byler, Giovanni Ponce de Leon, Jack White, Blake Stone, Will and Cedric Vakalahi, Bryant Anderson, Drake Goranson and Anthony Wilson played in the Eastern Regional All-Star Championships in Pittsburgh.

Tyler Sousley and Connor Marsh were selected to National teams, the US Junior Olympic Rugby Sevens Team and the USA Stars and Stripes. Sousley received a rugby scholarship to the University of Arizona. Marsh will play rugby for Indiana University. Sousley also played in Las Vegas and London, England.

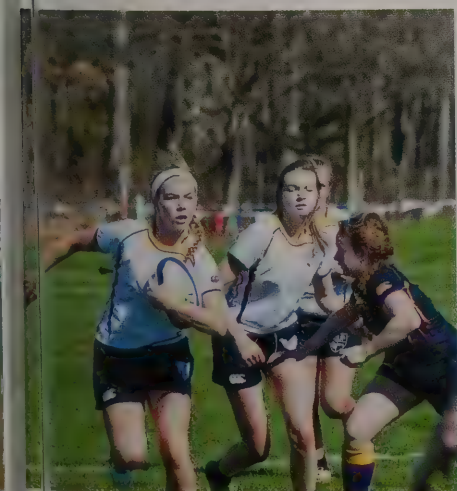

The team celebrated with Coach Bart Bottorff after winning the Midwest Championship in early May.

PENN ACADEMIC TEAMS WIN STATE

After winning their 20th regional title, the Social Studies ASB team qualified for the State meet. Science and math also competed at Purdue University in May, with the math team winning its first State title. Coach Brad Grounds was "ecstatic" about the win and told the South Bend Tribune, "They worked hard, very hard. They came here knowing what to do and they did it. We'll be here next year." Grounds praised his students' effort. // While coach Lynda Rose was a little disappointed about the science team's third place finish, she said that Penn was in good shape: "If you take three teams to state and place all three, that's pretty darned good." Her senior students really wanted to go all the way this year. Rose told the Tribune, "These kids are great, they work really hard and they do it all. It's not me, it's them. They researched for months, write quizzes and direct their own program." // While the social studies team did win a state championship in their class, coach Pete DeKever told the Tribune that he and his team are going to put an asterisk next to that win. "We did a great job this season but we're the second-best team in the state. Scottsburg (Class 2) got a 23 and we scored a 22," DeKever said. He explained that his team doesn't compete for the class titles but for the overall score and to be the best team in the state. // He said that the team's record of 19 straight competition wins and four consecutive state championships is something they are all proud of (it's the longest winning streak in Indiana ASB history). // 277 teams started competing at the beginning of the season, with only 24 teams advancing to State. // In an interview with the Tribune, Linda Gong, 12, said, "Everyone on our team worked really hard in practice and no one slacks off. The entire team works." Seungyup Sun, 12, agrees. "I think what makes our team so strong is we really all work together. We even write out practice questions. That's how committed we are to the team," he said.

Social Studies ASB practices on Sundays in Coach Pete DeKever's home.

Mock Trial beat arch-rival Adams in the State Championship round, and went on to finish 25th in the National Championship.

Peter DeKever named PHM Teacher of the Year

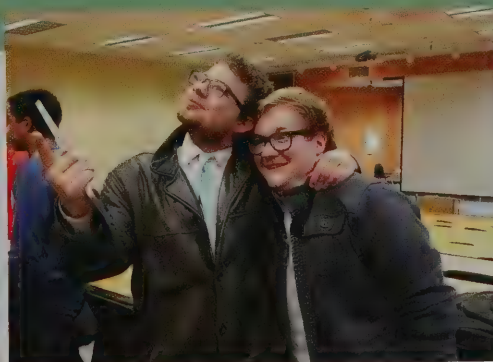

It only makes sense that championship teams have a champion teacher. Spell Bowl and Social Studies ASB coach, Peter J. DeKever, was named Penn-Harris-Madison teacher of the year. In an article in the South Bend Tribune, DeKever said it is due to his students' success that he was named teacher of the year, and feels "he is accepting it more on behalf of all his players through the years." DeKever has taught at Penn High for his entire career. The former Mishawaka Caveman has incredible passion for his academic teams, something he says began when he was a student at MHS. In addition to teaching and coaching, DeKever is the author of several books: With our past: Essays on the history of Mishawaka; Past to Present: More Essays on the History of Mishawaka; and Freddie Fitzsimmons: A Baseball Life.

The theme for the ASB competitions was "Westward Expansion." Social Studies focused on the history and events of the time, and English read My Antonia. Fine arts studied music and paintings about the theme.

Each round of an ASB competition consists of 25 questions. There are six rounds.

"You don't just hear music, you feel it."

Joey Bartus, Jon Koellner, Nick Savage, Amanda Nafe, Mcki Kistler and Kacie Saar listened to Passenger Assessment. They covered Jimmy Buffet's classic, "Margaritaville."

"Being a part of battle of the bands is such a huge opportunity. I love being a part of something bigger than just my band alone," said Cody Gard, 12.

Jeremiah Meert, 12

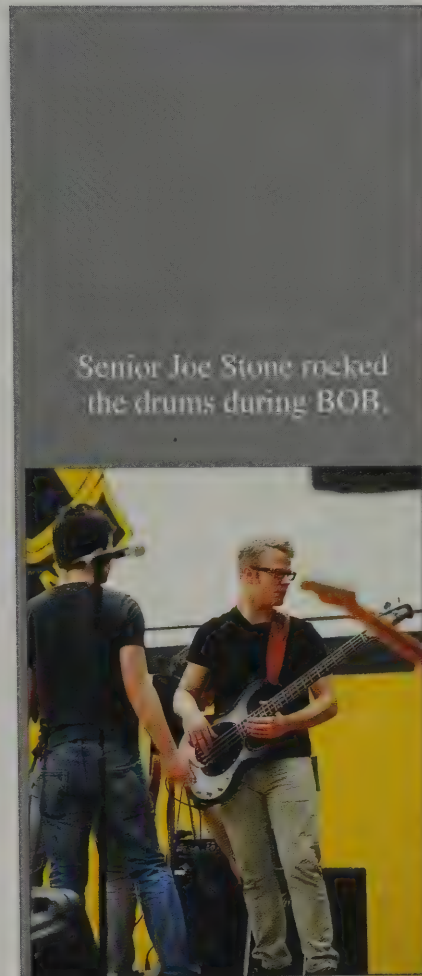

"I loved being a part of BOB because it gave our band a chance to play our music for other bands and people from school," said James Wroblewski, 12.

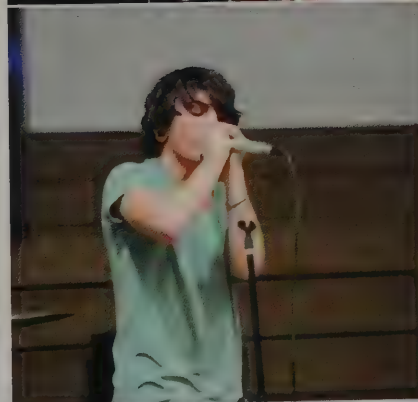

Battle of the Bands

Battle of the Bands was held in the auxiliary gym, which provided a different atmosphere from the cafeteria or Center for Performing Arts. The lights were bright, and few people danced. Each band played for 30 minutes.

Senior Joe Stone rocked the drums during BOB.

The (Almost) Totally True Story of Hansel and Gretel

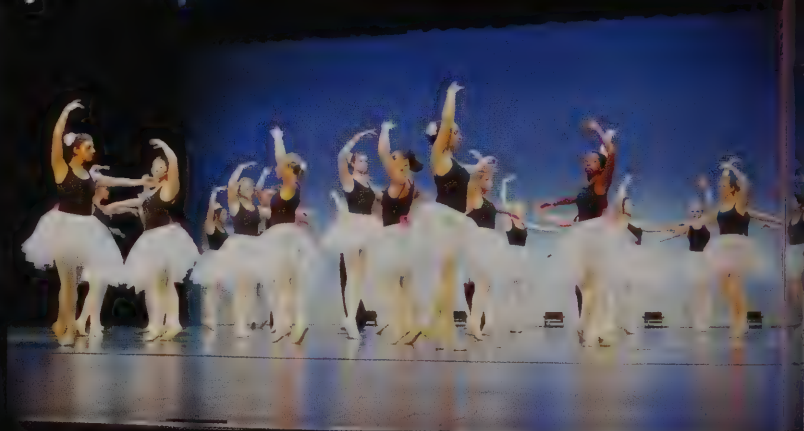

Broderick Balsley, 11

Dance Classic

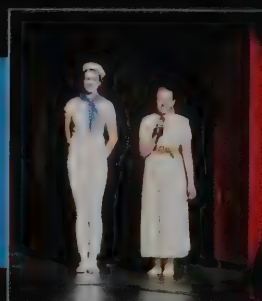

Every year the dance classes showcase the skills they have been learning throughout the year in a performance at the end of the school year. The first year dance students learn the basics of ballet, tap, jazz, and modern throughout first semester. During second semester, they learn the tap, jazz, and modern dances they will perform at the classic. Second year dance students focus more on choreography. They spend all year learning and choreographing dances they will perform at the classic. The class splits into groups and choreographs counts of the dance. At the end they put all of the choreography together to create their dance. The advanced dance classes learn the ballet, tap, jazz, and modern dances they will perform at the classic all year. These dancers have to try out to be in this class and the choreography they are given is more challenging and advanced than the other classes.

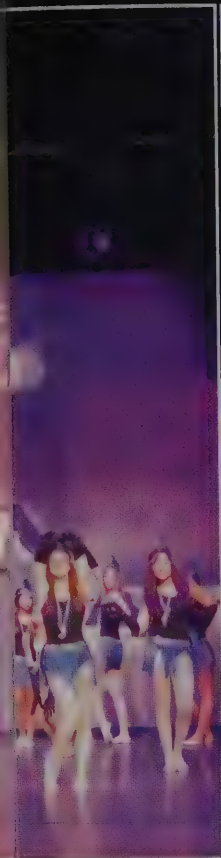

This year the dance classes performed a dance at the classic in honor of Gavin Grimes. He had been a part of the dance program throughout his high school career. He died just before his senior year. This dance was dedicated to him and all he brought to the dance program.

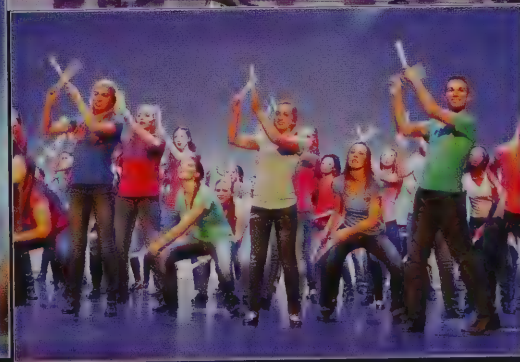

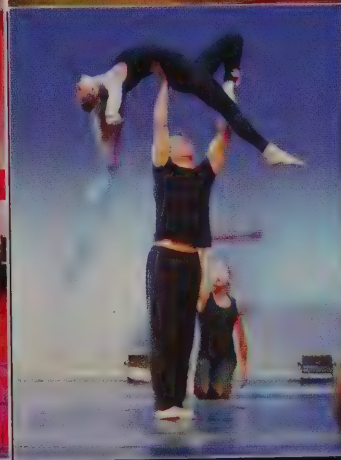

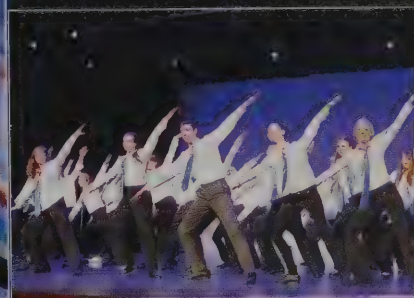

Dancing
through the

DECADES

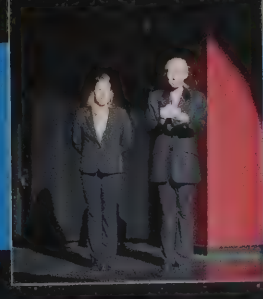

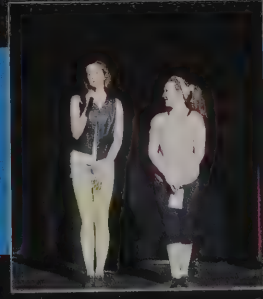

The first half of the show is the tap, jazz, and modern dances. Each class performs all three types of dance. The advanced dance class also performs a ballet. The second half of the show is all of the "theme" dances. Every year the dance classic has a theme. This year the theme was "dancing through the decades." Each dance class was given a decade to portray through dance. The first dance of the second half of the show is performed by all of the student assistants. The last dance is always given to all of the boys involved in dance.

The two dance teachers are Denise Sanders-Honaker and Jenn Wolfe. They work all year choreographing the dances for the dance classic and teaching students the basics of dance.

PROM 2014

Prom Court

1 Nails freshly done and a beautiful corsage, two of the most essential items to complete the prom night look.

2 Prom queen, Courtney Shreve, and prom king, Brian Richman, smile as they dance after their crowning.

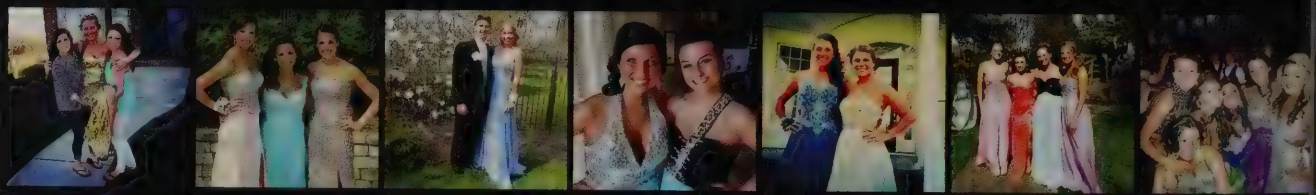

3 The rest of the prom court takes center stage on the dance floor after everyone is announced.

4 The crowd parts as the King and Queen make their way to the dance floor after they were announced.

A NIGHT IN HOLLYWOOD

"The Hollywood theme and beautiful dresses made for what seemed like a real red carpet event."

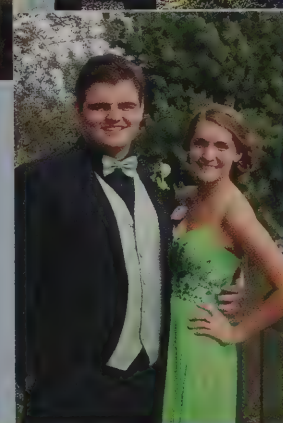

It's not prom unless you have plenty of pictures to show for it.

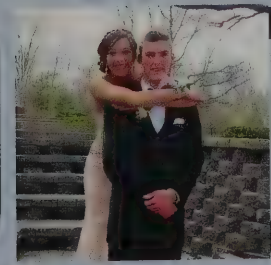

Prom is always a memorable night for many people, but it is not complete without the extensive picture taking beforehand. Whether it's the classic group picture, a snapshot of a couple, or even a different creative pose, capturing the memories of prom night is essential.

"Senior prom was one of the best high school memories and it made it even more special to spend it with Zach."
-Stephanie Garbaciak, 12

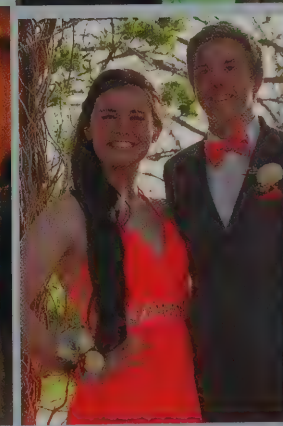

"Prom was an unforgettable night and a great way to end my senior year!"
-Courtney Shreve, 12

"I wouldn't have wanted to have spent my senior prom with any other friends. It was definitely a night to remember."
-Torai Patel, 12

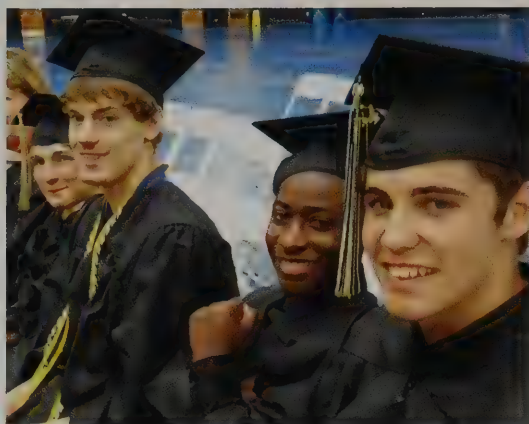

The girls of the group were not the only ones having fun taking pictures. This group of friends made sure to get a guy picture before the photo op ended.

Their last names don't start with "Z", but they were a little late to graduation practice, so they had to wait at the end for their diploma.

Graduation 2014

Members of the boys' track team held their "commencement" in the morning before driving to Indianapolis for the State meet. State finalists include Thomas Varner, Jon Koellner, Thomas Gales, Christian Wittendorf, Taylor Neff, Tyler Krathwohl, Zach Oakley, Tim Deal, Nate Ohlson and Isaiah Cook.

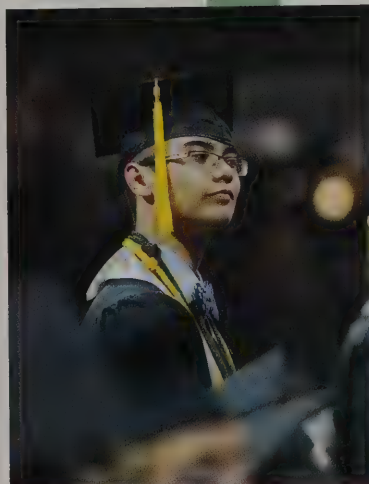

Superintendent Dr. Jerry Thacker and Principal Steve Hope led in members of the School Board and other administrators in front of the class of 2014.

Students applaud after the announcement of an award recipient.

While "Pomp and Circumstance" plays in the background, members of the graduating class file in to their seats.

The 16 valedictorians stand with their plaques before delivering their speeches.

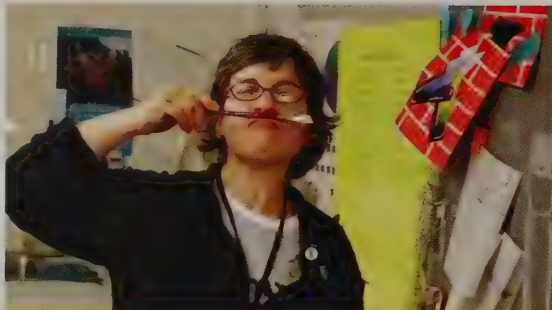

What's The Best Part Of Your Job?

"The best part of my job is the satisfaction of helping sick children but not having to deal with very serious injuries," said Sally Dikos, Nurse.

Why Wait For College?

English teacher Dawn Troyer helped Alexis Goodrich, 12, work on an essay for her Ivy Tech English class. "I can't wait for college," said Goodrich, 12.

1] Art Gone Wild?

The artistic art teacher Becky Hope takes a moment to joke around with her students and make excited faces.

2] #GovernmentProbs

Government teacher Tim Gavin gets photobombed by the seniors while stopping to help student, Kallee Masterson, 12.

3] White At The Whiteboard

"The best part of my job is being able to get to know my students and making a difference in their lives," said Denise White, Math.

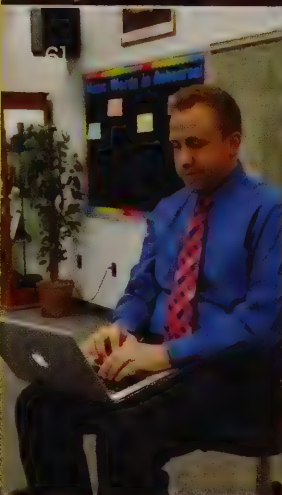

4] Senora Brazeau

"The best part of my job is learning new things about not only my students but as well as myself working with them," said Melissa Brazeau, Spanish.

5] What Do You Like Most About Your Job?

"What I like most about my job is the moment at the end of the day that I can feel that I have made a difference in a student's life, as well as challenged, and added joy," said Lisa Pawlik, PE. "The best thing about my job is seeing my fifth graders from Bittersweet and how they are all grown up to be seniors now," said Jennifer Dunderman, PE secretary.

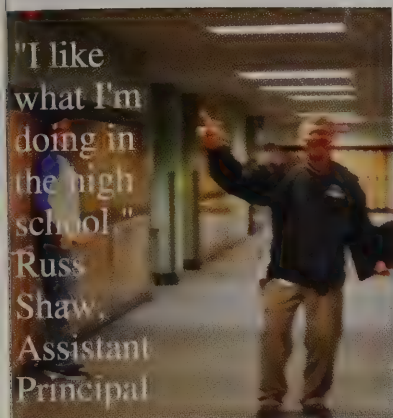

6] Here For The Bands.

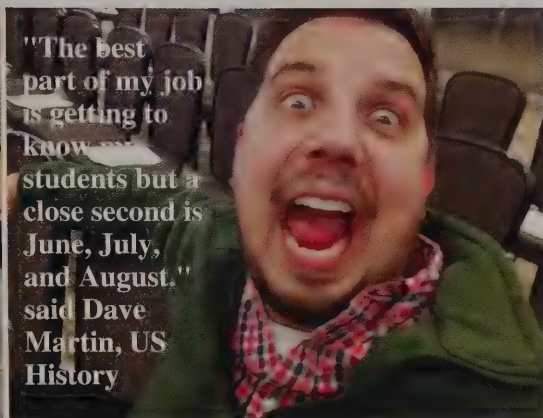

Band teacher Christopher Paulson takes a moment to work on the next masterpiece for upcoming band concerts.

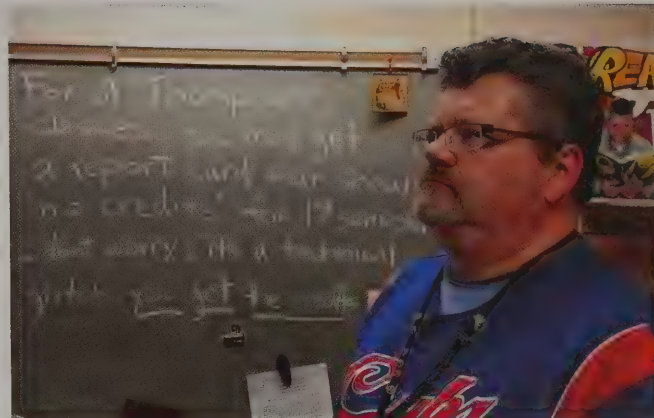

Faculty

"I like what I'm doing in the high school." Russ Shaw, Assistant Principal

"The best part of my job is getting to know my students but a close second is June, July, and August." said Dave Martin, US History

Biology teacher Harshberger was surprised for her birthday by students and many of her fellow teachers. When asked how this made her feel she stated, "I knew that the students were planning something, but I didn't know how elaborate it was going to be, and in all my years of teaching I have never felt so much love and affection from my students as well as my fellow staff members." Harshberger also stated that she felt so happy about being able to experience this with her fellow teachers and her students as well.

Helping Hands

Bonnie Manningham

Mrs. Manningham helped her student Ezra Nettrouer, 12.

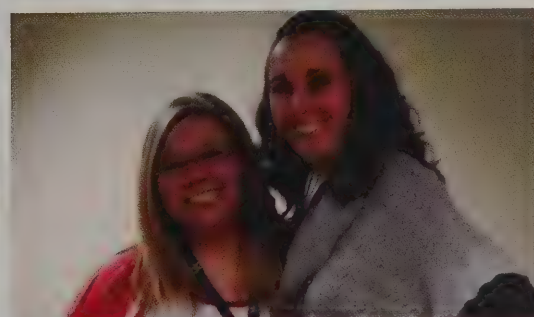

Kim Poling

Mrs. Poling, for the win, helped student Kelsey Allison, 12 with her calculus.

Becky Tagliaferri

Mrs. Tag, helped her wonderful student Connor Bartlett, 12.

Senora Watts

Kelley Watts paused with student Ashlee Rorie, 12. "The best part of my job would have to be getting to know my students and being able to keep them engaged and interested in the Spanish language," she said. "Also, Penn is da' bomb!"

JOHN W. GOUKER, Jr.
October 7, 1961-March 22, 2014

"Mr. Gouker was a very intense fella, from organization to caring about his students. He cared about my kids just as much as his own. He called them "Step Kids" and I don't think any of us realized how much he was involved with the school. He will be missed by all of us. - Dave Falkenau, Dean

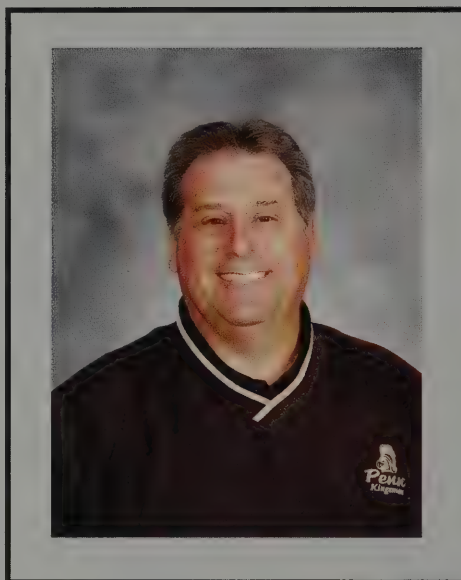

"One time I had a driving lesson after school. The driver came to pick me up after the day was over and Mr. Gouker stopped us on his way out and took the time to say hi to the instructor with me, and thanked him for teaching his daughters to drive as well. Before we left Mr. Gouker wished me luck before going about the rest of his day. I will always remember him as a person who would go out of his way to show interest in students' lives. He truly loved his job and his students. He will be missed." -Allison Schoenfeld

"IRREPLACEABLE." MARK WATTS, SCIENCE

"I was expelled but he gave me a second chance and enabled me to finish high school with core 40 honors despite my horrible addiction." -Nate Urban

"I was called into Mr. Gouker's office one day after the security cameras caught me stuffing trash into a freshmen's locker. Mr. Gouker and I had been friends since 7th grade and I was also in his office a lot, so we were familiar with each other. I didn't think the offense was too serious until he asked me if I knew whose locker it was. Out of all the hundreds of lockers in Penn, I had somehow managed to put trash into the one belonging to his daughter. As soon as I found out the apologies started flying. We were able to laugh about it later, but I saw my life flash before my eyes for a few tense seconds. If you're reading this, I'm sorry I put trash in your locker, but I'd do it a million more times to have one more laugh with the great man that is your father." - Seamus

Loving Father, Husband,
Friend, and Teacher

"I had Mr. Gouker for 7th grade math at Schmucker Middle School in 1987 (I also had Mrs. Gouker as well). I was certainly not his prize student because I didn't do much of my work. He used to ask me what I planned to do with my life and I told him I was going to be a Marine. He didn't seem to be very fond of my plan but he was a hidden inspiration to me to work hard later in life. I have now been in the United States Marine Corps for 21 years and have a very successful career and partly due to Mr. Gouker. Thanks Mr. Gouker! My thoughts and prayers are with the family." - Chief Warrant Officer 4 Jeff Stapleton USMC

"John is an awesome guy who loves kids and believes what is right. We will miss John immensely, and I know this sadness will be overcome by God's eternal love." - Thom Andreae, Art

"I couldn't have asked for a better dad! And seeing all these posts made me realize that God needed him up there. He changed so many lives for the better and will forever be my hero! I can't wait to see you again in heaven someday."

<3 -Sarah Gouker, 10

"Sophomore year I was suspended for ten days. Four days later he called my mom to see how I was doing and asked if I would be well enough to come back the following Monday. When I came back he called me down to his office just to see how I was settling back to school. He did this periodically just to make sure I was on the right path. This meant everything to me, people may say that he was too hard on people but he was a saint and is the reason why I've made it back from this horrible time in my life. -Stacy

"John was a math teacher at Schmucker Middle School for many years before becoming an assistant to the principal at Schmucker and at Walt Disney. John has been a valued member of the Penn leadership team since coming to Penn as a dean a few years ago. John had a great take charge personality and just a terrific rapport with students, especially those students who found themselves in trouble or felt disenfranchised. We all knew John as a great guy who worked wonders with our students. For all of his great qualities John's greatest trait was his dedication to his family. He was a great husband and father. Please keep John's family in your thoughts and prayers. John's wife, Elisa, is a teacher assistant at Grissom. Their youngest daughter, Emily, is a Penn student, a cheerleader and member of the track team. They also have an older daughter, Sarah, who is a student at Valparaiso University. . .We mourn the loss and celebrate the life of our friend and colleague." - Steve Hope, Principal

" 'Parenthesis are number 1, and then exponents must be done, you multiply and divide, add subtract from left to right! This is how the order of operations is done! Now let's do some math and have some fun!' I will remember that song for the rest of my life and for that I thank you, fair winds and following seas." - Ron Hurstel

We are so proud of the young woman you have become. You are an amazing daughter and sister and we are truly blessed. Happiness is a journey, not a destination! Enjoy the ride! Remember –To the moon and back and all the sand on the beaches!

*We love you.
Mom, Dad and Anthony*

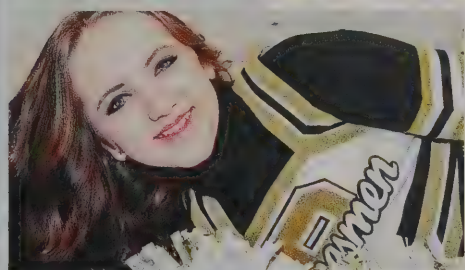

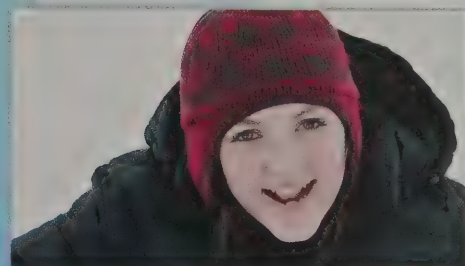

Katie Biggs

It's been a joyous pleasure watching you grow into the lovely young lady you've become. There's nothing you can't do with your future! We are so very proud of you!! Love you big bunches !!!!

Mom and Dad, Love and best wishes from your siblings,
The Biggs family, and the Loutzenhiser family

Lillian Edwards

"Tulip", time has passed so quickly and you are embarking on a new phase in life. We cannot put into words what a joy and a blessing that you have been to us. Your sweet spirit and caring heart make you even more of a beautiful person. Mere words cannot express how proud we are of you, and just how much we love you! Keep laughing and embrace the future. Remember first and foremost to always keep GOD first in your life. HE will direct your path and carry you on your journey. LOVE ALWAYS- Dad, Mom, and Ethan

Katie Campbell

*"Be not afraid of greatness: some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them."
Shakespeare, Twelfth Night*

*Congratulations, Katie!
We are extremely proud of the great things you have done and cannot wait for what is to come.*

*Love,
Mom, Dad, and Soren (and Gatsby, too!)*

Matt Chaffee

*May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam, and may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home. And when you finally fly away
we'll be hoping that we served you well.
For all the wisdom of a lifetime, no one can ever tell. In our hearts you will remain forever young.*

Love, Dad and Brenda

Theodore Hoffman

Dear Ted,

Theodore Roosevelt, said "Nobody cares how much you know, until they know how much you care." If you have a passion for what you do, you will do it well. We are so proud of the man you have become and are excited to see what your future brings at Ball State. Go Cardinals!

Love, Mom and Dad

Zachary Croy

To our little buddy (who is not little anymore),

We are so very proud of the young man you have become. You are a hard worker and so caring for others around you. Your future will be bright as long as you continue to choose Jesus in all you do.

-Jeremiah 29:11

Love, Dad, Mom, Alex, Mama and Papa

you've accomplished in high school. Learn, discover, lead and enjoy! On to college!
Dad, Mom, and Vince*

Harisa Spahic

*It feels like just yesterday that it was your first day of kindergarten. Now you're packing your bags to go off to college.
Congratulations, we are so very proud of everything you've accomplished. We wish the best for you and your future. Good luck at ND!*

*Love,
Mom, Dad, Merisa, and Amina*

Aidan Koch

We are extremely proud of the young man you have become! Congratulations on your Academic and Athletic accomplishments. You have achieved your goals through self-discipline and determination and we are confident you will excel at your chosen career. May God keep you safely in his care as you pursue your goals and dreams.

We love you, Dad, Mom and Aubrey

Kayleigh Zeeff

To our beautiful daughter Kayleigh. It wasn't that long ago you were our little baby girl, and now you have grown into a wonderful young woman. We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. We know you will fly with every dream you chase. We love you!

Love, Dad, Mom, Jillian and Sophie Louise

*To the best Aunt ever!
Love, Cameron*

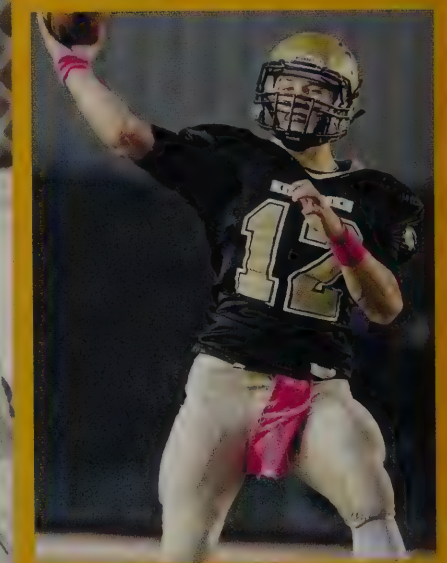

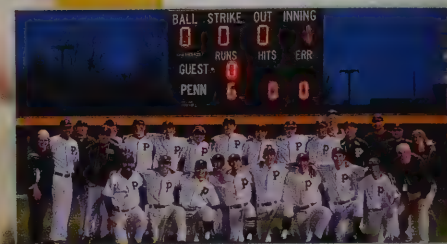

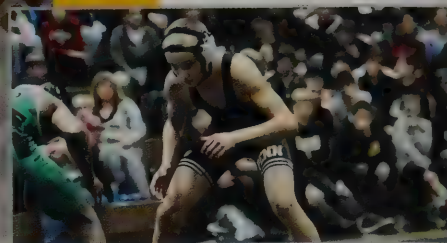

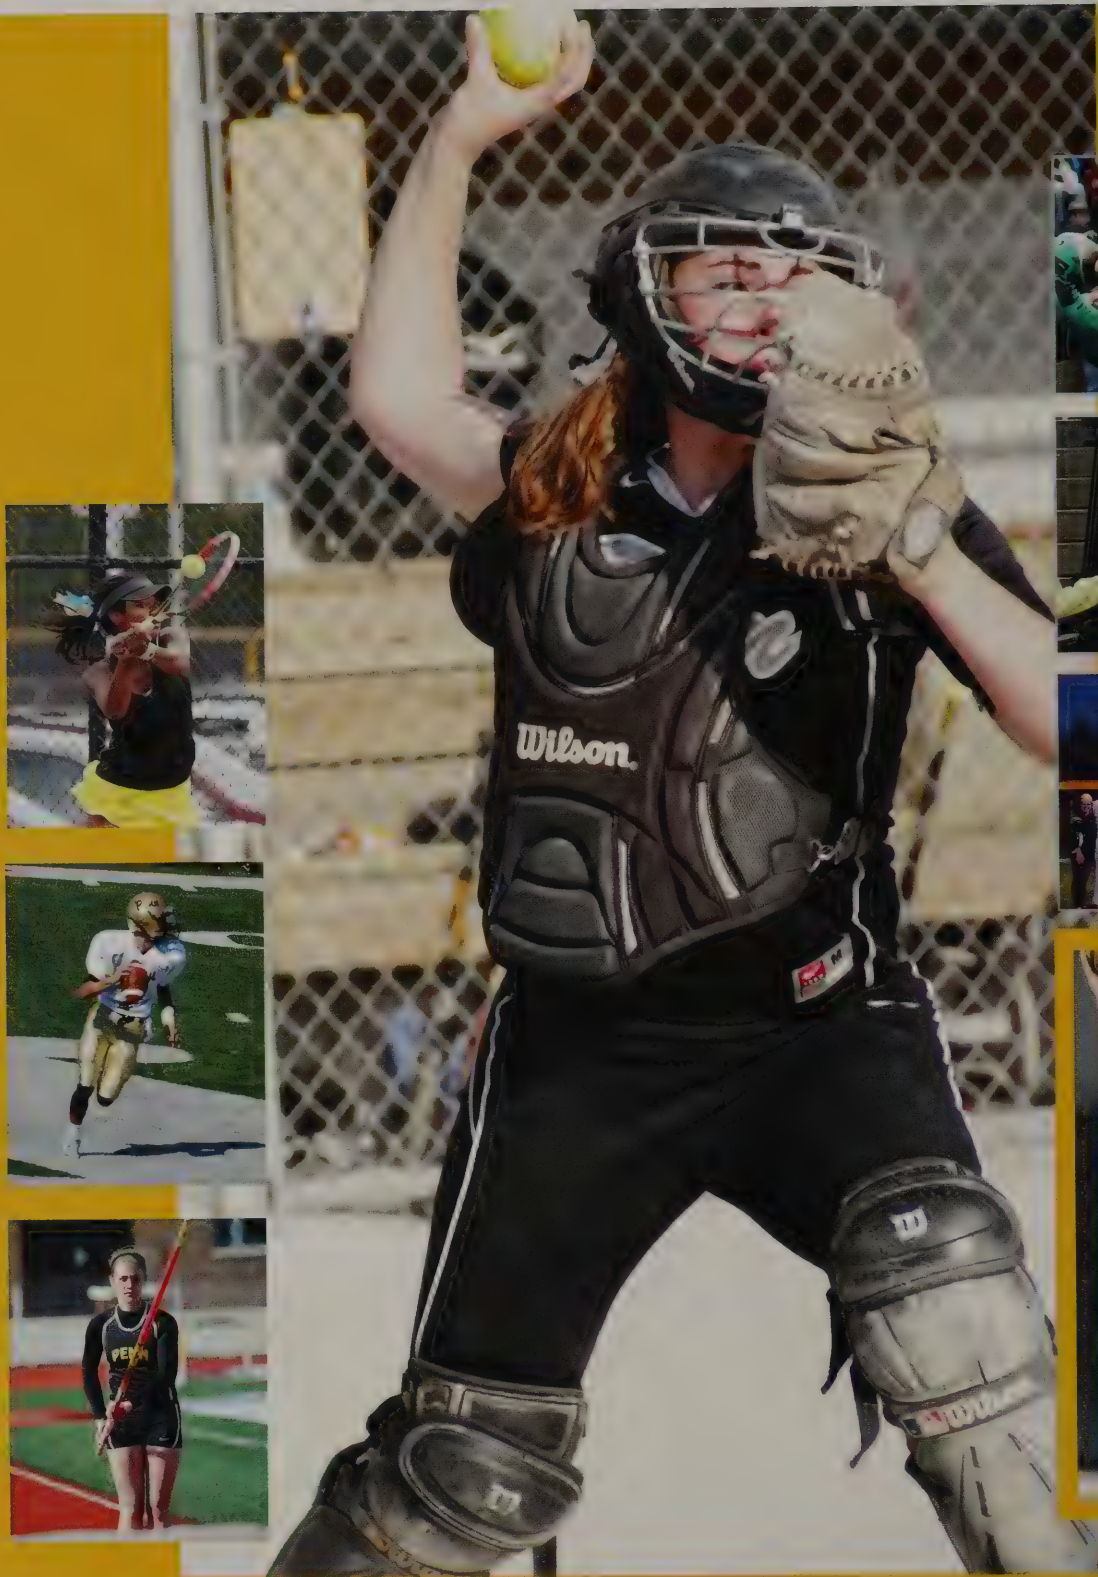

Carmela LaGambina-Lockwitz

*Imagination is the highest kite one can fly. We know all your dreams will come true, you're amazing.
Love, Mom, Dad, Frank and Mama*
